

sedition Meetings and political Conventions, now pending in Parliament, be approved by the other Branches of the Legislature, it may also be sanctioned by the Royal Authority; that so your Majesty may long continue to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms, and promote the Happiness of your Majesty's Subjects.

[Presented by Rowland Burdon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]
Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of Brechine.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of Brechine, in Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty, to express our steady Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the daring and atrocious Act of Violence made on your sacred Person.

We were filled with inexpressible Detestation and Abhorrence at the villainous Attack against the Life of our most gracious Sovereign, the sole Object of whose Reign has been to promote the Happiness and Welfare of his People; and we trust Parliament, in it's Wisdom, will take effectual Measures to prevent any such daring Outrage in future.

Signed, by our Appointment, and in our Presence, this 3d Day of December, 1795 Years.

John Smith, Provost.

[Presented by Alexander Allardyce, Esq; Representative in Parliament for Aberdeen, Montrose, Aberbrothock, Brechine, and Inverberwie.]

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of your Royal Borough of Queensferry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on your happy Escape from the late atrocious Attempt made on your Royal Person, and to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Attachment to your Person and Government, and to that excellent Constitution under which it is our Happiness to live.

While we are grateful to Almighty God for your Majesty's Safety, we consider the late Intervention of His Providence as giving us a Pledge of the Continuance of our national Happiness under your mild and equitable Reign; and as we feel it to be our Duty it shall ever be our Pride to defend your Royal Person and Government against the Attempts of domestic Traitors and foreign Foes.

That your Majesty may be ever under the peculiar Care of Almighty God; that He may bless the Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and others of the Royal Family, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's faithful Subjects.

Signed, in our Name and at our Desire, by our Chief Magistrate, at Queensferry, the 30th Day of November, 1795 Years,

James Taylor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Tregony, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your Majesty's most sacred Person.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that you may live in the Affections and Esteem of your People; and that your Crown may descend to your latest Posterity, is the sincere Wish and ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Servants.

Given under our Common Seal this 2d Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Richard Gurney Clerk, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, Freeman, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Grampond, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to approach your Presence with the warmest Affection for your Royal Person, Family and Government.

We humbly request your Majesty will accept our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your Royal Person.

We (humbly conceiving that a Return of Plenty and National Prosperity can only be secured to your faithful Subjects by restoring to them the Blessings of Peace) humbly pray your Majesty to exercise your Royal Prerogative for accomplishing so desirable an Object.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that you may live in the Affection and Esteem of your People, is the sincere Wish of your loyal and faithful Servants.

Given under our Common Seal this 3d Day of December, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Daniel Warts, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tamworth.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgesses and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Tamworth, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Congratulations on your late Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person by some of the most unprincipled of your factious and deluded Subjects.

Permit us, at the same Time, to express in the strongest Terms our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of those Men, who either joined in or were privy to this Insult; the Heinousness of which (were it capable of Aggravation) was increased by it's being committed at a Time when your Majesty was in the Exercise of that Part of your Royal Function which it is the peculiar Happiness of Englishmen to witness and boast of, that of meeting the Two other Branches of the Legislature in Parliament.

That the Almighty King of Kings may continue to be your Defence against all your open and secret Enemies,
