

in the Exercise of that Branch of your Power which is an essential Part of the Constitution we feel, if possible, an increased Indignation against the Perpetrators of such an horrid Act.

We derive, however, no small Consolation from observing the Satisfaction and Joy that have been testified on your Majesty's Deliverance from the Designs of your Enemies; and while we are earnest to join in this general Testimony we shall not cease to offer up our Prayers for the Preservation and long Continuance of your Majesty's Life: Nor will we fail to promote, as far as in us lies, that Loyalty to your Person, which is obligatory upon us both by Duty and Gratitude, and that Reverence for the Laws of our Country, which is absolutely necessary, not only to secure the publick Tranquillity, but to maintain and perpetuate the distinguished Pre-eminence which this Nation has so gloriously and enviably enjoyed.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the undersigned Inhabitants, Householders, resident within the Borough of Lewes, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack on your sacred Person, and our Happiness in your Safety.

We are truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your mild and paternal Government, and we pray that the Almighty, in Mercy to your People, may long preserve you to be their King and Father.

We heartily lament the individual Distress and the publick Burthens which the present War has occasioned; but, remembering it's Origin and Cause, and being convinced of your Majesty's Disposition ever to promote the Welfare of your People, we rely with Confidence on your Majesty's gracious Assurances to your Parliament, that "should the present Crisis in France terminate in any Order of Things compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a reasonable Expectation of Security, and Permanence in any Treaty which might be concluded, your Majesty will meet the Appearance of a Disposition to negotiate for a general Peace on just and suitable Terms, with an earnest Desire to give it the fullest and speediest Effect."

In the mean Time we will supplicate the Almighty to prosper your Majesty's Endeavours for the common Good, and to frustrate the evil Designs of your foreign and domestick Enemies.
