

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Volunteers of a Corps of Infantry at Faversham, in the County of Kent, associated for the Purpose of defending and supporting the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, do most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your sacred Person, and to express our Abhorrence of so base an Attempt to destroy and subvert our glorious Constitution.

May your Majesty live long to protect and defend our Religion and Laws; and permit us to assure you, most gracious Sovereign, that we shall always be ready to support and defend, to the utmost of our Ability, such wise and salutary Measures as now are or may hereafter be brought forward for the Security and Protection of the Lives and Fortunes of all your Majesty's loving Subjects.

Signed by the Officers, at the Request and on Behalf of the Company,

John Bennett.

James Tommer.

Isaac Topping Packman.

[Presented by Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Royal Tain Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Tain Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne upon the present Occasion. Highly sensible of the Happiness and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and impressed with a proper Regard for our inestimable Constitution, we have learned with Surprise and deep Abhorrence of the late daring and traitorous Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person.

Deign then, most gracious Sovereign, to accept of this Address and Congratulation of your faithful Royal Tain Volunteers upon your Majesty's happy Escape, as a Test of the unalterable Affection they owe to your Majesty as the Father of your People, in Defence of whose Person and Government they have taken up Arms, and on whose personal Safety the Welfare of the Nation depends.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free and grateful People is the fervent Prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Royal Tain Volunteers.

Signed, in our Presence, this 26th Day of November, 1795, by

Alex. Baillie, Major.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grantham Loyal Corps of Volunteer Infantry.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects composing the Grantham Corps of Volunteer Infantry, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to unite with others your loving and faithful Subjects in Sentiments of Congratulation on the happy and providential Escape of your Majesty from the late Attack so detestably intended against your Royal Person and Dignity, and the Peace and Tranquillity of your Majesty's Realm and Government.

We lament, that under the Auspices of a Constitution so wisely calculated for the Protection and Happiness of all Orders of Men, there should be any so miserably depraved, and so blind to themselves and Society at large, as to attempt the Ruin of the Fountain Head, and Source of their Enjoyments, by endangering the Person and Life of their Sovereign. For Wretches so misguided and debased we feel much Pity, but greater Resentment and Abhorrence.

We observe with heartfelt Satisfaction that necessary Precautions are about to be taken for preventing the attendant Evils of Sedition and Treason; and we concur in Opinion that all Laws adopted for due Subordination are in no wise diminishing, but securing to us our inalienable Rights and Privileges, and are also additional Proofs of your Majesty's paternal Regard and Affection for your People.

We pray for your Majesty's long Life, and that it may please the All-wise Ruler of the Universe to continue to bless and preserve your Royal Person (in all Happiness and Prosperity) the King and Ruler of this our envied Country and Constitution; and as Soldiers, we conclude with a faithful and earnest Tender to your Majesty of our services in Support of the Laws at all Times, but more especially in the Hour of Danger, which God avert.

[Presented by Simon Yorke, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Loyal Loughborough Volunteer Infantry.

S I R E,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Loyal Loughborough Volunteer Infantry, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our affectionate Attachment to your Person and Government, and that it is with great Concern we find your Majesty has lately been grossly insulted, when going to attend your great National Duty in Parliament. We sincerely rejoice in the providential Delivery of your Royal Person from the daring and infamous Hands of wicked and ill-designing Men; and we also assure your Majesty of our firm Attachment to the Constitution of this Kingdom, under which we enjoy the Comforts and Happiness of Life.

Animated by the Duty we owe to the happiest of Governments, we are determined to render every Service in our Power for the Preservation of Peace and good Order.

Signed, by Desire of the Corps,

John Creswell, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Nottinghamshire Corps of Gentlemen and Yeomanry, united for the Defence of your Majesty, and for the Maintenance of Order and good Government, cannot refrain from expressing our Grief and Indignation at the atrocious Violence recently offered to your sacred Person, and our Detestation of the Principles
