Zealously attached to our Sovereign, and fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under our present happy Form of Government, we see with Horror the traitorous and insidious Attempts of the Enemies of both: And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always be ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Royal Person and Dignity, and for the Preservation of that Constitution, which, under the auspicious Reigns of your Majesty's illustrious Family, has attained to such a Degree of Perfection as to secure the Happiness of this Country, and to excite the Envy and Admiration of the World.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the South Holland Squadron of Lincolnshire Gentlemen and Yeomen Cavalry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Volunteers of the Long Sutton, Holbeach and Spalding Troops, or South Holland Squadron of Lincolnshire Gentlemen and Yeomen Cavalry, warmed with Affection and Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, humbly approach the Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's late providential Deliverance from the hostile and dangerous Attempts of a Set of desperate Traitors.

Fully sensible of the Equity and Mildness of your Majesty's Government, we feel indignant at those Doctrines tending to create Discontent and Mischief, which have of late been disseminated by evil-disposed Persons in several Parts of your Majesty's Dominions. Conscious of the Value of our glorious Constitution, we are armed and arrayed under your Majesty's Authority, with a full and determined Resolution to defend that Constitution, and your Majesty, who forms so essential a Part of it, against all Attempts to overturn social Order and lawful Authority; and we pray to God that your Majesty's precious Life may long be continued, to diffuse Happiness to your faithful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Corps of the Royal Knareborough Volunteer Foresters, embodied for the Defence of the Wapentake of Claro, in the West Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Person, at the Time your Majesty was engaged in one of your most important Functions.

Permit us, Sire, to declare our firm and united Resolution to support, to the utmost of our Abilities, your Majesty's Person and Government, and our happy Constitution; and that we rely, with Confidence in the Wisdom of Parliament, that some Laws will be enacted for the better Security of your Majesty's Person and Government, and also for more effectually preventing seditious Assemblies, where Attempts are made to involve this Country in all the Miseries that Anarchy and Confusion can produce.

We return our Thanks to your Majesty for the Assurance made to Parliament that you will restore to your Kingdoms the Blessings of Peace, when it can be obtained upon just and honourable Terms.

By the unanimous Order and Approbation of the Corps,

LES Ministres et Anciens de l'Eglise Helvétique, et leurs Compatriotes établis à Londres, sentent trop vivement les Avantages inestimables dont ils jouissent sous le Gouvernement bienfaisant de votre Majesté, pour n'avoir pas été pénétrés d'Horreur pour l'Attentat dont Elle a été l'Objet. C'est pour exprimer ces Sentimens, et pour présenter à votre Majesté l'Hommage de leurs Felicitations, qu'ils ont humblement supplié d'être admis auprès d'Elle. Ils reconnoissent la Bonté de la Providence dans le Soins qu'Elle a pris de défendre sa Personne sacrée contre les Mains parricides de ceux qui envioient à cette Nation le Bonheur dont elle jouit sous un Monarque couronné de tant de Vertus. Ils ne cesseront d'adresser leurs Voeux à l'Être Suprême pour qu'il continue à protéger votre Majesté la Prosperité de ses Peuples; et ils seront toujours prêts à employer leurs Efforts pour la Défense de son auguste Personne, et pour le Maintien d'une Constitution qui doit être également chère à tous ceux qui vivent sous son heureuse Influence.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Aux Etats de l'Isle de Jersey, l'An Mil sept cent nonante cinq, le neuvième Jour de Novembre. Les Etats aujourd'hui assemblés, pour le première Fois, depuis que la facheuse Nouvelle est arrivée du Darger auquel leur debonnaire Souverain a été exposée, par l'Attentat de quelques Méchans sur sa Personne sacrée, employent le premier Moment de leur Scéance pour témoigner, par une humble Adresse à Sa Majesté, l'Horreur et l'Indignation que leur inspire cet énorme Crime: Ils assurent Sa Majesté que la Loyauté, toujours inébranlable de ses fidèles Sujets de cette Isle, est augmentée, s'il est possible, à l'Occasion présente: Que leur Attachement pour la Personne de Sa Majesté et son illustre Famille en est redoublé. Ils se représentent, avec la plus vive Reconnoissance tous les Bienfaits et la Protection dont ils jouissent sous son heureux Regne, et ils unissent leurs Coeurs et leurs Voix pour invoquer, avec Reerveur, le Toutpuissant de conserver Sa Majesté, et la combler de ses plus précieuses Graces.
