

loyal Subjects, who ardently wish for the Preservation of your invaluable Life.

Affiliated for the Purpose of maintaining good Order, and assisting the Civil Magistrate in the Discharge of his Duty, we assure your Majesty that we will execute the important Trust reposed in us by our Country at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majesty may long live the beloved Sovereign of a loyal, free and happy People, and that your illustrious Descendants, following your benign Example, may rule over these Nations while the World lasts, is the earnest Wish of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Volunteers of Inverness.

Signed in the Field, on the Anniversary of our Inrollment, and by our Appointment,

John Robertson, Captain, Inverness Volunteer Company.

Inverness, December 9, 1795.

[Presented by Sir Hector Munro, K. B. Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, being the principal Householders within the Wapentake of Hangwest, in the North Riding of the County of York, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our utmost Abhorrence of the late daring Outrage against your Majesty's Royal Person, and of all seditious Meetings: And also our Confidence in the Wisdom of Parliament for adopting such Measures as may defeat any Design against our happy Constitution.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Tho. Orde Powlett, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Harwich.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers and Privates of the Volunteer Company of Artillery of Kingston upon Hull, duly sensible of the Value and Importance of your Majesty's Life, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person to testify our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of the atrocious Assault made upon your Majesty, when in the Discharge of one of the most important Duties of your Office.

We humbly beg Leave to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the happy Escape of your Majesty from the Hands of daring and misguided Men, and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and of our firm Resolve to support and defend the same at the Expence of every Thing dear to us.

It is our most fervent Wish and Prayer, that your Majesty may long continue to reign upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a loyal, faithful and united People.

Given under our Hands this 12th Day of December, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by the Earl of Burford and Samuel Thornton, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Ministers and Elders and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock, beg Leave to approach the Throne with profound Respect, to express our most sincere Concern and Indignation at the daring Outrage and Insult lately offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, in passing to and from your Parliament; an Attack the more flagitious, as being made on the Person of a Sovereign, whose public and private Virtues have long endeared him to the Love and Esteem of his Subjects.

Highly sensible of the Wisdom, Justice and Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and of the Protection and Happiness we enjoy under it, we beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from such imminent Danger, and we earnestly pray that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved as a Blessing to your People, and for the Security our happy Constitution.

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Aitkin, Moderator.

Aberbrothock, Dec. 2, 1795.

[Presented by David Scott, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the County of Forfar.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Meigle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Meigle, in the County of Angus, having viewed with Astonishment and Abhorrence the late daring Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, by a licentious and desperate Mob, do humbly beg Leave to offer our most cordial Congratulations on the providential Preservation of your Majesty in that alarming Juncture, and to give your Majesty the strongest Assurance of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and our firm Resolution at all Times to inculcate the same good Principles upon those committed to our Care.

When the Spirit of Disaffection hath manifested itself in an Attempt so atrocious, and when seditious Meetings are held to cherish Sentiments or broach Doctrines treasonable in their Nature and subversive of all social Order, we trust the Legislature will timely interpose its Authority, that the Constitution, both in Church and State, may remain unimpaired, and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, undisturbed and glorious.

Our daily Prayers are offered up for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty and your Royal House.

Signed in the Name of the Presbytery by

Ja. Playfair, Moderator.

Meigle, December 9, 1795.
