

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Liberty of Havering Bower, in the County of Essex.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of your ancient and chartered Liberty of Havering Bower, anxious to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack upon your sacred Person in your Passage to and from Parliament at the Opening of the present Session,

Humbly present our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Escape of your Majesty from the manifest Designs of domestic as well as foreign Enemies, tending to destroy the Happiness which your Subjects enjoy under the Reign of the most virtuous of Sovereigns, and which, by the Hand of Providence, we trust will be continued, and the mild and equitable Government of these Kingdoms firmly cemented, under which it is our Pride to live.

Permit us, Sire, to express our Approbation of the Bills adopted by the Wisdom of Parliament to prevent treasonable Insults in future to your Royal Person, and for the Suppression of seditious Meetings.

That our beloved Sovereign and his illustrious House may ever adorn the Throne of these Realms in perfect Happiness and Prosperity, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of your grateful and affectionate Subjects.

[Presented by Bamber Gascoigne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Liverpool.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, composing the Northern Regiment of Yorkshire West Riding Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from an atrocious Attempt upon your Royal Person; an Attempt which seemed only capable of Aggravation from the flagitious Circumstances with which it was attended.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's paternal Anxiety for the Interests and Happiness of your People, we never entertained a Doubt but your Majesty would rejoice at any Opportunity of restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace, whenever Peace could be restored on a Basis of Honor and Security; Blessings which, however inestimable they may be deemed, are not, as we apprehend, more likely to be obtained, either by a pusillanimous and ill-timed Representation of Distress, or the Efforts of Sedition and Dissension.

Chearfully, therefore, as we shall lay down our Arms under your Majesty's Commands, when those detestable Principles are abandoned, and those dreadful Dangers are averted which incited us to take them up, we beg Leave, nevertheless, humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever continue ready to exert all the Powers and Energy we may possess in Defence of your Majesty and our invaluable Constitution against the Attacks either of foreign Enmity or domestic Disaffection.

That Providence may bless and still protect your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and that you may long reign over a grateful and happy People, are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and devoted Subjects.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Lister.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of Richmond in the County of York, assembled in the Common Hall of the said Borough, the 11th Day of December, 1795.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgeses and other Inhabitants of Richmond in the County of York, beg Leave, with all Humility, to express to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack upon your Royal Person by wicked and designing Men, at the Time when your Majesty was engaged in one of the most important Acts of the State.

The general Indignation and Abhorrence of the above Attempt, expressed to your Majesty on this Occasion by a free and discerning People, in which we most cordially unite, must convince you of their affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person, and give your Majesty the strongest Assurances that your Subjects feel themselves much interested in your Welfare.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty's sacred Person in perfect Health; and continue to you every domestic Comfort; and may your mild and parental Government ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty, Gratitude and Affection from an honest and manly People.

[Presented by the Earl of Inchiquin, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

St. James's, January 2.

THE following Address having been transmitted by the Lord Bishop of Durham to the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful Address of the Corps of Loyal Sunderland Volunteers, associated for the Purpose of manning and defending the Batteries at the Entrance of Sunderland Harbour.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Corps of loyal Sunderland Volunteers, humbly presume to express to your Majesty the strong Indignation with which we still continue to be affected by the atrocious Violence attempted against your sacred Person, and to offer our most affectionate Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from such a malevolent and enormous Outrage.

Accept, Sire, these heartfelt Sentiments of Abhorrence at the Treason, and Gratitude for your Royal Preservation, from a Portion of your faithful Subjects, who, though in general engaged in the Pursuits of Trade and Commerce, have voluntarily assumed a more public Engagement, that of devoting our Lives and Services to the Safeguard of our beloved Sovereign, his Government, and our glorious Constitution, and to the particular Defence of the Part of the Country and Coast where we are Inhabitants.