The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-second of July last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety

[Price Eighteen-pence.]

Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa; or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawcener.

St. James's, January 16.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Chief Burgesses of the antient Borough of Newtown, otherwise Frankville, in the Lie of Wight.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of the antient Borough of Newtown, otherwise Frankville, beg Leave to present our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's late Escape from the gross Insult and daring Outrage of a rebellious Mob, in your Passage to and from Parliament.

While we render our humble Thanksgivings to God for His providential Interposition in this Instance, we lament that there should exist any Individuals in this Kingdom so insensible to the Blessings of the Constitution and the Virtues of their Sovereign as to offer Violence to either, considering, as we do, the Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person no less than an Attempt, by subverting the main Pillar of the Constitution, to demolish the glorious Fabric altogether.

We thank your Majesty, that, fearless of your own personal Danger, (a Virtue hereditary in the House of Brunswick) you have been graciously pleased to attend to the just Apprehensions of your People, in adopting Measures for the Discovery of the Persons engaged in the late treasonable Conspiracy, so that the Authors and Abettors of it may be brought to Punishment.

We further thank your Majesty for having given Effect to the salutary Provisions of your Parliament, as well for the better Security of your Majesty's Person in future, as for the Suppression of those seditious Meetings, to which we ascribe the late Comotions among the Disaffected, with their flagrant Consequences.

And we pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of your affectionate Subjects, and that your Majesty's Enemies and their's may ever fail in their evil Designs, and fall into their own Snares.

Given under our Common Seal the 23d Day of December, in the Thirty-sixth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by George Canning, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

St. James's, January 16.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Volunteer Corps and principal Inhabitants of Stornoway.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Volunteers and principal Inhabitants of Stornoway, deeply affected with Indignation at the unprovoked, daring and atrocious Insult lately offered to your Majesty, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of sincere Congratulations on the Safety of your Royal Person.

Highly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, and impressed with a just Regard to our inestimable Constitution, we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Protection of a Life so truly dear to us as your Majesty's, and in defeating the Machinations of such evil-disposed Persons as aim at the Subversion of our glorious Constitution.

Signed, by Authority of the Corps and Inhabitants,

Al. Men Ivory, Major Commandant.

Whitehall, January 14.

The King has been pleased to grant to Joseph Pickford, of Royton in the County of Lancaster, Esq; and His Issue, his Royal Licence and Authority, to assume and take the Surname, and bear the Arms of Radcliffe only, (pursuant to the last Will and Testament of his late maternal Uncle William Radcliffe, of Millsbridge, in the Parish of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Esq; deceased;) such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.

Downing-Street, January 16.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, Creutzenach, the 21st of December, 1795.

IN consequence of the Advantages obtained by Marshal Clerfaye, as stated in my last, General Jourdan, after having attempted in vain by different Manœuvres to secure the Right of his Army, began his Retreat from the Nahe on the 13th Instant, and on the 15th he took a Position upon the Hunstuck, occupying all the principal Passes between Bacharach on the Rhine, and Trarbach on the Moselle.

From the 15th to the present Date several unimportant Actions have taken Place between the advanced Corps of these Two Armies, and the Austrian Light Troops have at different Times scoured the Country from Birkenfeldt to Treves; but the Strength of the Enemy's Position in the Mountains, and the Roads that lead to it being rendered so bad by the late Rains as to make the March of heavy Artillery almost impossible, have prevented Marshal Clerfaye from undertaking any Operation of Consequence. His Excellency's Line now extends from Dreyekhausen on the Rhine, by Stromburg, Kirch, and Oberstein to Birkenfeldt, from whence the Left of his Army is connected by a Chain of Light Troops with Marshal Wurmsler's Right, which occupies Kaiserlautern. Marshal Wurmsler has drawn his Line from Kaiserlautern, by Neustadt, along the Rivulet called the Spirebach, to the Rhine.

General Pichegru has made several Attempts to oblige the Austrians to abandon the Post of Kaiserlautern, and on the 20th Instant he attacked it with very superior Numbers; but, after an Action of several Hours, he was completely repulsed, with the Loss of near Two Thousand Men and several Canon.

non. The Austrians had, on this Occasion, Twenty-nine Officers, and between Six and Seven Hundred Non-commissioned Officers and Privates killed and wounded.

The Enemy sometimes make Demonstrations from Duffeldorf, but the Austrian Corps stationed upon the Sieg Rivulet keeps them completely in Check on that Side.

Part of Marshal Wurmser's Army and the Prince of Conde's Corps defend the Right Bank of the Rhine from Philipsbourg to Basle.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, December 18, 1795.

NOTICE is hereby given, that there will be no Drawing-Room at St. James's till Monday the 18th of January, 1796, when Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,
Somerset Place, January 13, 1796.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
Bernard Cobbe,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniencies have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XIX. And whereas it is highly important, towards effecting the Purposes intended by this Act, that the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority thereof should be empowered to compel Accountants to bring forward their Accounts; be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, so often as they shall think fit, call upon such Persons to whom Sums of Money have been or shall be so issued and paid, to render an Account of the same to them the said Commissioners, within a Time to be by them limited, and on Failure of the Accounts being delivered accordingly within the Time so limited, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to include the Names of all such Defaulters in their Certificates, transmitted to the Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer, in order that the usual Process may issue thereupon; and also, in case they shall see Cause, they are hereby required to give Notice thereof to His Majesty's Attorney General in England, His Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, or His Majesty's Attorney General in any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, as the Case may require, in order that such Motions may be made by the said Officers to the Court of Exchequer, or other proper Court, and such further or other Process may be issued in order to his moving the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland, or the proper Court in the Colonies or Plantations, for special Process to be issued against such Defaulter or Defaulters, as may be deemed necessary to compel him or them to deliver in his or their Accounts, as directed by the said Commissioners, unless, upon Application of the Parties, their Agents or Attornies, to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for Executing that Office, on a special Statement of Circumstances to justify Delay, the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, shall grant their Warrant to stay the Process for such reasonable Time as they shall think fit.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of such Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Departments severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.

CARMARTHENSHIRE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Application is intended to be made to this present Sessions of Parliament for Leave to bring in a Bill for erecting a compleat substantial Stone Bridge for Carriages over the River Towy, near the Town of Llandilo, in the said County of Carmarthen, at or near to the Scite or Place where the late Bridge stood and the temporary Bridge now stands, and making proper Avenues and Approaches thereto; and also to enable Trustees to raise and borrow Money for that Purpose, to be discharged by a Toll to be collected thereon. Dated this 7th Day of January, 1796.

Whitehall, December 26, 1795.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of the 29th, or early in the Morning of the 30th Ultimo, a barbarous and inhuman Murder was committed on the Body of Thomas Newell, a private Soldier in the North York Regiment of Militia, near the Barracks, at Tynemouth, in the County of Northumberland, and that all Endeavours to discover the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder, have hitherto proved ineffectual.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the inhuman Murder above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty does hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders; to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon Conviction.
