P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the malignant and epidemic Fever, of the Nature of the Plague, which some Time since prevailed in the City of New York, and in the Town of Norfolk in Virginia, within the United States of America, has subsided, and that Health is perfectly restored to the said City of New York, and to the said Town of Norfolk; and that the Communication between those Places and the City of Philadelphia is again opened; His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being desirous to remove all Restraints upon Trade, so far as may be consistent with the Safety of His Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine laid by His Majesty's Order in Council bearing Date the 14th Day of October, 1795, upon all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods and Merchandize arriving from the City of New York, and the Town of Norfolk in Virginia, in the United States of America, be taken off; and that all such Ships and Vessels be permitted to discharge their respective Ladings, without unpacking, opening and airing, and without performing any Quarantine, as freely as they might have done in case such Order of the 14th Day of October, 1795, had not been made, any Thing in the said Order contained to the contrary notwithstanding; provided that the Masters or other Persons having Charge of such Ships or Vessels respectively, do first make Oath before the Custom-House Officer or Chief Magistrate at the Places respectively, at which such respective Ships or Vessels have arrived, or shall arrive, that their Crews are free from all Infection: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkenor.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th of January, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-second of July last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety

Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant January, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa; or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

St. James's, January 13.

This Day Their Majesties, with Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, removed from Windsor to the Queen's Palace, to reside during the Winter.

St. James's, January 18.

This Day being appointed for the Celebration of the Anniversary of the Queen's Birth-Day, there was a very splendid and numerous Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment Their Majesties upon the Occasion. The Guns at the Tower were fired at One o'Clock. There was a Ball at Court in the Evening, and Illuminations and other Public Demonstrations of Joy in London and Westminster.

St. James's, January 19.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted or delivered to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick, and of the Loyal Wick Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Wick, in Common Council assembled, together with the Loyal Wick Volunteers, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to express our highest Indignation and Abhorrence at the late daring Insults and Outrages which were directed against your Majesty's sacred Person in passing to and from the Parliament House upon the first Day of the present Session,

When we consider the many Blessings we enjoy by the well-known Moderation and Equity of your Majesty's Government, the personal Virtues which adorn your Character, the Protection of equal Laws,

the mild Administration of Justice, with an Impartiality unequalled in any other Country, and the Enjoyment of every rational Liberty, sacred and civil, joined with Security in the Possession of every Right to all who keep within the Bounds of the Laws, we cannot, but with the greatest Indignation, declare our Abhorrence of the sacrilegious Attempt which has been made on your Person and Authority: And, while we offer our sincerest Congratulations to your Majesty upon your happy Escape upon that Occasion, we trust that those who were most active in committing that daring and unprecedented Outrage will be discovered and brought to condign Punishment. And we beg Leave to lay before your Majesty, that it is our earnest Wish, that you would be graciously pleased to direct the most effectual Measures to be taken, not only to discover the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so atrocious, but to prevent the like in Time coming.

That your Majesty may always overcome the evil Designs of your Enemies, and that you may live long the beloved Sovereign of a free, a happy, and a grateful People, is our earnest Prayer, and that of the Community we represent.

Signed and sealed, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Wick, the 30th Day of November, 1795.

Will. Mac Leay, Chief Residing Magistrate, and Captain of Wick Volunteers.

[Transmitted by Sir John Sinclair, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Caithness.]

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Moderator and remanent Members of the Presbytery of Caithness, observing with Astonishment the late daring Attack made on your Royal Person, feel ourselves called upon, by Duty and Attachment, to express our strongest Abhorrence of the atrocious Insult offered to your sacred Person and Dignity on that Occasion; and while we give sincere Thanks to Almighty God for the kind Interposition of his Providence in your Majesty's Behalf, and offer your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your fortunate Escape, we cannot but regret that any of our Fellow-Subjects should be so far deluded, and lost to a Sense of Duty, as to intend Evil to your Majesty: But we trust, and hope, that your Majesty will always frustrate the malicious Designs of evil-minded Men, and triumph over the Machinations of your Enemies. And our Prayer to God is, that your Majesty may long live the loving and beloved Sovereign and Father of a free, a happy and united People; that the British Crown may flourish on the Heads of your illustrious Family to the latest Generations, and that we may ever shew ourselves sensible of the Blessings we enjoy as Britons by improving them aright.

Signed at Thurso the 1st of December, 1795, in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of Presbytery, by, may it please your Majesty, Thomas Jolly, Moderator.

Geo. Mackenzie, Clerk.

St. James's, January 19.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland; His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The loyal Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heritors, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Linlithgow.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Heritors, Commissioners of Supply and Justices of the Peace of the County of Linlithgow, humbly approach your Throne, to express our sincere Affection for your Royal Person, and our Joy on your happy Escape from the late wicked and flagitious Attempts against your sacred Life, for which Attempts we entertain the greatest Abhorrence: Attempts levelled at the Happiness and Peace of these Realms, the Prosperity and Comfort of all real Friends to their Country and it's unrivalled Constitution, attacked by malicious Fomenters of Faction, Anarchy and Confusion. The Subversion of it alone can be their Object.

Our Hearts are filled with Gratitude to the almighty and allwise Providence of God for the Preservation of your Majesty's precious Life, and the Discomfiture of such wicked Conspiracies; and we, trusting in his powerful and beneficent Aid, will use our most zealous Endeavours, each in our different Stations, to carry into Effect the Laws enacted by the Wisdom of the Legislature for the Preservation of your Majesty's Person and the Prevention of seditious Meetings, and all Attempts against your Person and Government.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment, at Linlithgow, the 8th Day of January, 1796 Years, Johnstone Hopetoun, Preses.

Whitehall, January 9, 1796.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter was, on Thursday the 31st Ultimo, delivered from the Post-Office at Launceston to Mrs. Herring's Servant, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

"Polgooth and other Mines Dec. 28th 95.
 "Averishes Woman it is with the greatest satisfaction that we inform you that we have many particular friends that commiserates with us and in a great measure feel for our Distress whole Bowells of Compassion are not shut—But woud that we Miners should partake with them of the necessacery article of Corn and at this time as we are almost driven at the last Ebb of Distress, the Want of Provisions the sole Cause or rather such impious Monsters as you who have a plenty and to spare and we perishing with Hunger—

 "Therefore we by the Consent of many thousands of Brave Miners have thought it prudent to communicate our designs to you and likewise by the Consent and advice of many respectable Men of your Parish and the Parishes Agent who are by Wittnesses of the abundant you have at present to dispose of, if your infernal pernicious Disposition will for the first time give you the Heart to release your distres'd Pittioners or are long your arbitrary goveners who will in a very short time be your visiters by the Directions and Dictates of one Mr. Kitter, who we are sorry to add hath been involved in a Clamoin on the same ocasion and more piticularly when we consider it was from a very disstinguished disinterested Principle such a Principle as bid him feel for others woes—We solomally declare this to be the real Sentiments of every man and likewise the unanimous design that if after this Caution, you still persist to keep your Corn, or from the Same Motive refuse to sell it at a moderate Price, We are thareby determined to assemble and immediately to march till we come to your Idol, or your God or your Mows, whome you esteem as such and pull it down and likewise your House or any few you shall collect to resque the Same shall with the Same be made as low as the meanest object you cast your Contempt on. So dont resist on the Character named for communicating any of the kind to us for he is a Man we are totally unacquainted with, so dont treat him with the least Contempt, but reather dispose of your Grain at a moderate Price with Charity, although it must of Necessity be allowed that you are a total Stranger to that Companion yet for once be charitable and release your distres'd Brothers or Compulsion will be the Certain Consequence if our designs are to be credited or the unonymy of our Friends to be confided in, for they are very Numoures too numoures for you we presume to believe—even some scores of your Neighbours have in the strongest terms promised us there Assistance. This &c. from your most ob^t S^t who ere long will call on you.
