P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Twenty-eighth Day of this instant February; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Twenty-eighth Day of this instant February to the Thirtieth Day of April, next, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

At a Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, held the 4th of March, 1796,

The following DECLARATION, on the Part of the Court, was agreed to and signed, viz.

THE Court of Directors, deeply impressed with the Importance of the Question submitted to the Consideration of the General Court on Wednesday the 2d Instant, respecting the Shipping Concerns of the Company, feel it incumbent upon them to state to the Proprietors and the Public at large, that the Question to be balloted for on Tuesday the 8th of March instant is an amended one, brought forward on Behalf of the Owners of the Shipping, and that it directly tends to preserve the old System, and entirely to do away the Reports of the Court of Directors upon that important Business. It seems necessary to apprise the Proprietors, that Amendments thus brought forward, and supported in the General Court by Persons immediately interested in the Question, can tend only to delay and to prevent the main Question from being openly and fairly decided. The Court of Directors annexed the original Question and the amended one for the Information of the Proprietors, and they trust that they will see the Necessity of supporting their Executive Body by voting against the Question, thereby confirming and approving the Sentiments they have already expressed upon the late Ballot taken upon another amended Question.

The following is the original Motion made the 2d Instant:

"That this Court do agree with the Court of Directors in the Sentiments expressed by them in their first Report respecting the Shipping Concerns of the Company, and do confirm the same and the several Resolutions of the Committee of Shipping and Court of Directors therein referred to and annexed to the said Report."

The Undermentioned is the amendment to be put by Ballot:

"That this Court do agree with the Court of Directors in such Parts of their Resolutions and Reports “ Reports as regard the Freight for the current “ Year and the permanent Peace Freight during the “ Existence of the present Fleet; but as it is ad“ mitted on all Hands that our present Fleet cannot “ be exceeded either in it's complete Equipment or “ the Skill and Gallantry of our Officers and Com“ manders, they are of Opinion that it would not “ be consistent with sound Policy to adopt a System “ entirely new, which will gradually produce a “ complete Change in the Management and Con“ duct of our Naval Affairs, and which may even“ tually affect the Security of our foreign Possessions
