

“ for the said Borough of Malmesbury. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough of Malmesbury.” I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.” Given under my Hand, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Jovis, 10^o Die Novembris, 1796.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of the Honorable Augustus Ludlow, commonly called Lord Preston, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Robert Adair, Esq; and also the Petition of the thereunder signed Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall, paying Scot and Lot, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, “ That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the said several Petitions did, in Part, depend upon the Right of Election; and that, thereupon, the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said several Petitioners delivered in a Statement as follows: “ That the Right of Election is in Freemen, and also Inhabitants, paying Scot and Lot, in the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall.” That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, William Joseph Dennison, Esq; and John Angerstein, Esq; delivered in a Statement as follows: “ The Sitting Members contend the Right of Election for the Borough of Camelford is in the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Freemen of the said Borough.” That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners, the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford. That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford, have determined, That the Right of Election for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Camelford is in the Freemen, being Inhabitants, and paying Scot and Lot. That the said Select Committee have also determined, That

“ the Capital Burgesses of the said Borough have no Right to vote for Members to serve in Parliament for that Borough, unless they be free Burgesses, inhabiting and paying Scot and Lot.” I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of an Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.” Given under my Hand the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.
