By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For the Suppression of the Mutinous and Treasonable Proceedings of the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, upon the Representation of Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty respecting the Proceedings of the Seamen and Marines on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore, We were pleased to command Our said Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty to signify to the said Seamen and Marines Our gracious Intentions, expressed in Our Royal Declaration, under Our Sign Manual, bearing Date at St. James's, the Twenty-seventh Day of May instant, in the Words following: "Whereas it has been represented unto Us, that, notwithstanding the Declarations made in Our Name, and by Our Authority, by Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, of Our gracious Intentions to recommend to the Consideration of Parliament, to augment the Wages and Allowances of the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, which Our gracious Intentions and Declarations have since been carried into Effect by an Act of Parliament; and, notwithstanding the Communication made by Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Richard Earl Howe, Admiral of Our Fleet, of Our gracious Intentions towards the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, for the Pardon of the Offences by " them committed, and Our Royal Proclamation thereupon, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of May instant; and notwithstanding the Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude with which the same were received by the Seamen and Marines of Our other Squadrons, yet the Crews on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore have not only since the full Manifestation of all these Our gracious Intentions and Declarations been guilty of divers Acts of Mutiny and Disobedience of Orders, but have even proceeded to other Acts of the most heinous and treasonable Nature, by firing upon some of Our Ships in order to compel them to submit to their Direction; have threatened and taken Measures for stopping the Commerce of the Kingdom passing to and from the Port of London, and have, by Terror of their Force, compelled Two Frigates to desist from executing a particular Service, which by Our Orders they were directed to perform: We, thinking it right to warn all Our Seamen and Marines on Board the said Ships of the heinous Nature of the Offences by them committed, and of the dangerous Consequences thereof to the Spirit and Discipline of the British Navy, and to the Welfare of their Country, as well as their own Safety, do hereby earnestly require and enjoin all Our said Seamen and Marines, immediately on the Notification of this Our Royal Declaration, to return to the regular Discharge of their Duty, as has already been done by the Crews of Our other Squadrons and Fleets, stationed “ stationed at Portsmouth and Plymouth, and else“ where: And whereas We are well assured that a “ great Part of the Seamen and Marines on Board “ the said Ships at the Nore abhor and detest the “ Criminal Proceedings which are still persisted in “ on Board the said Ships, and are desirous to return “ to their Duty: Now, We being desirous to extend “ Our Gracious Intentions of Pardon to all “ such Seamen and Marines so serving on Board “ Our said Ships at the Nore, who may have returned, “ or shall return, upon the Notification of “ this Our Royal Declaration, to the regular and “ ordinary Discharge of their Duty, have authorized, “ and do hereby authorize and empower Our said “ Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, or any “ Three of them, to signify to all such Seamen and “ Marines, who may have been guilty of any of “ the treasonable Acts aforesaid, or of any Mutiny “ or Disobedience of Orders or Neglect of Duty, “ and who have returned, or who shall, upon “ Notification hereof on Board their respective “ Ships, return to the regular and ordinary Dis“ charge of their Duty, Our Royal Intentions to “ grant to all such Seamen and Marines Our most “ Gracious Pardon, and to promise, in Our Name, “ to all such Seamen and Marines, who have so “ returned, or shall so return to the regular and “ ordinary Discharge of their Duty, Our most “ gracious Pardon accordingly: And We do hereby “ declare, that all such Seamen and Marines, who “ shall have so returned, or shall so return to their “ Duty, and to whom the said Lords Commissioners “ of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, shall “ so promise Our Pardon, shall receive the same “ accordingly, and shall be discharged and released “ from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments and Penalties “ incurred by reason of any of the Acts aforesaid, “ or by reason of any Act of Mutiny or Disobedience “ of Orders, or any Breach or Neglect of Duty “ previously committed by them or any of them; “ hereby declaring at the same Time, that all such “ Seamen and Marines who shall not take the “ Benefit of this Our gracious Pardon, shall from “ henceforth be considered as liable, according to the “ Nature of their Offences, to such Punishment as the “ Articles of War and the Law have provided for the “ same.” And whereas Our Right Trusty and Right “ Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor George John “ Earl Spencer, Our Trusty and Well-beloved Charles “ George Lord Arden of Our Kingdom of Ireland, “ and William Young, Esquire, Rear-Admiral of the “ White, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of “ Our Admiralty, did cause Our gracious Intentions “ expressed in such Our Declaration, to be signified to the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore, and did require such Crews to return to their due Obedience accordingly: And whereas it has been represented to Us, that some of the Crews of Our said Ships have been desirous of returning to their Obedience accordingly, but have been prevented from so doing by Violence; and others of Our Ships, in the actual Discharge of their Duty, have been fired upon, and Attempts have been made to prevent some of Our Ships from proceeding according to the Orders of their Commanders: And whereas such continued Perseverance in rebellious and treasonable Attempts against Our Crown and Dignity, after repeated Admonitions and offers of Our gracious Pardon, render it necessary for us to call on all Our loving Subjects to be aiding and assisting in repressing the same; We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our Admirals, Generals, Commanders and Officers of Our Forces by Sea and Land, and all Magistrates whatsoever, and all others Our loving Subjects, that they, in their several Stations, do use their utmost Endeavours, according to Law, to suppress all such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, and to use all lawful Means to bring the Persons concerned therein, their Aiders and Abettors, to Justice: And We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects whatsoever not to give any Aid, Comfort, Assistance or Encouragement whatsoever to any Person or Persons concerned in any such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, as they will answer the same at their Peril; and also, to the utmost of their Power and according to Law, to prevent all other Persons from giving any such Aid, Assistance, Comfort or Encouragement.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty-first Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 31st of May, 1797.

P R E S E N T,

 tended to the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, having been summoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions in their Mantles and Collars, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned in their Mantles, Chains and Badges, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartments, and, being called over by Garter, a Procession was made from thence to the Great Council-Chamber in the following Order:

Duke of Grafton.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

Prince of Orange.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Black Rod. Garter.

The Chancellor. The Prelat.

THE SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, Garter acquainted His Majesty that the Bishop of

of Norwich, Dean of Windsor, attended at the Door, and humbly prayed to be admitted to take the Oath of Register of this Most Noble Order; whereupon, being in his Mantle, (over his Episcopal Habit) he was conducted to the Sovereign by Garter and Black Rod, the latter carrying the Insignia of the Register's Office on a Velvet Cushion; and the Bishop kneeling down near the Sovereign, the Oath was administered to him by Garter, which being done, Black Rod kneeling presented to the Sovereign the Golden Chain and Badge, which His Majesty was pleased to put over the Register's Neck, who, having kissed His Majesty's Hand, withdrew to his Place.

The Chancellor then signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stall in St. George's Chapel at Windsor; and as by the Statutes none but a Knight can be elected, Garter and Black Rod were sent to introduce Earl Howe, Admiral of the Fleet, who was knighted by the Sovereign with the Sword of State.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the Election, and the Suffrages being collected by the Chancellor, and presented to the Sovereign, Richard Earl Howe was, by His Majesty's Command, declared duly elected. His Lordship was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter-Room by the Two Junior Knights Companions, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, preceded by Garter (bearing the Ensigns of the Order on a Cushion) and Black Rod.

Garter presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty delivered it to the Two Senior Knights Companions, who buckled it on his Lordship's Left Leg, the Chancellor pronouncing the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Ribbon with the George to the Sovereign; and, his Lordship kneeling, the Sovereign, with the Assistance of the Two Senior Knights Companions, put it over his Shoulder; the Chancellor, in the mean Time, pronouncing the Admonition; and his Lordship having kissed his Majesty's Hand, and severally saluted the Knights present, withdrew.

Garter then calling over the Knights, a Procession was made back to His Majesty's Apartment, in the Order as before, except that the Register walked in his Place.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal University of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our most cordial Congratulations on the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg.

We are anxious to testify our warmest Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty, and the Pleasure we feel upon every Occasion that gives Happiness to your Royal Family; and at the same Time that we come forward on this joyful Event, we beg Leave to express a profound Respect for a Princess so justly rendered dear to all your Majesty's Subjects by those amiable Qualities first implanted in her Royal Breast by the Guardian Care of her illustrious Parents.

We know it is our Duty to instil into the Minds of the Youth committed to our Care the highest Regard for our most holy Religion, a zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and a strict Obedience to the Laws; but more especially in these Times of Disorder and Irreligion are we called upon to guard the Young and Inexperienced from being led away by every vain Doctrine; to animate their Zeal for true Religion, to confirm their Loyalty, and to enforce this important Truth, that in supporting the Constitution, both in Church and State, they will at the same Time secure their dearest Interests and truest Happiness.

Permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to add our fervent Prayers that your Majesty, under whose Protection and by whose Bounty we possess so many Blessings, may with Tranquillity enjoy a long and glorious Reign; and that the Virtues of your Royal Daughter may transmit, even to foreign Climes, the Benefit of your eminent and illustrious Example.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, are happy in this Opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulation on the auspicious Event of the Marriage of the Princess Royal with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg. We rejoice in every Circumstance that can give Pleasure to the Breast of our worthy and beloved Sovereign, and of our gracious Queen, in whose Bosoms the tender Feelings of domestic Affection, and the most most amiable private Virtues, have ever been happily united with the patriotic Regard for the Welfare and best Interests of their People.

In this noble Alliance with a Protestant Prince, descended of the same Stem with your illustrious House, and connected with the most respectable of the Powers of Europe, we see with Pleasure an additional Security of the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, and of the consequent Happiness of your People under the best of Governments; a Constitution which has been the Envy and Admiration of enlightened Nations, and which, it may with Truth be affirmed, that all who are worthy of the Blessings it bestows, will join to venerate, and cordially unite to preserve.

Signed and sealed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, this 24th Day of May, 1797.

Thomas Elder, Provost.

Whitehall, June 3, 1797.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in the General Assembly, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most respectful Congratulations on the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal of Great Britain, your Majesty's eldest Daughter, with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg Stutgard.

While we sincerely rejoice in every Event that may increase your Majesty's domestic Comfort, and enlarge the Sphere of your paternal Affections, we regard every Extension of your Royal Family as an additional Security of our Religion and Liberties.

In the present Situation of public Affairs, so deeply interesting to the British Empire, we feel it to be our Duty to renew the warmest Expressions of our steady and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person, and to that Constitution, which was established by the Wisdom and Virtue of our Forefathers, has been improved under your Royal Ancestors, and is so happily administered by your Majesty, for the Security of those Laws, which give equal Protection to all your Subjects, and for the Advancement of national Prosperity. We have the Satisfaction of assuring your Majesty, that the great Body of the People under our Care concur with us in the same Sentiments of Loyalty, and in the same Reverence for the Laws and Institutions of our Country; and that there is no Abatement of that Spirit, which has produced so many voluntary and generous Exertions for the Preservation of internal Order, for the Defence of those Realms against the secret Machinations and open Violence of foreign Enemies, and for the Support of national Honour. They continue to feel and to act as becomes Britons, ready to sacrifice every private Consideration in Behalf of their beloved Sovereign, of the Independence of their Country, and of their Religion and Liberties.

While our People patiently and cheerfully endure the inevitable Toils and Burdens of War, they join with us in cherishing the pleasing Hope of Peace, when Peace can be obtained on Terms fair and honourable, such as will give full Security for the many Blessings by which your Majesty's Subjects are distinguished. For the Attainment of which most desirable Object we rely under God, with the most entire Confidence on the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils.

That Almighty God, whose Providence rules the Nations, and determines the Issues of War, may, by the Means which He hath chosen, and at His appointed Time, turn the Hearts of our Enemies; that He may diffuse a Spirit of Union and Loyalty among all your Majesty's Subjects; that He may prosper the Measures of Government, and may continue to bless the British Empire under the Light of His Countenance, and that your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy and affectionate People, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most obedient Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders, met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Adamsen, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 24, 1797.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address and Congratulation of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of your City of Aberdeen, beg Leave with all Humility and Respect to approach your Majesty, and to express our heartfelt Congratulations on the Nuptials of the Princess Royal with His Serene Highness the Prince of Wirtemberg.

Animated with the most lively Sentiments of inviolable Attachment to the best of Sovereigns, and deeply sensible of the invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and salutary Government, we warmly participate the universal Satisfaction which this auspicious Event has diffused among our Fellow Subjects, and we rejoice in the pleasing Prospect of the Increase of your Majesty's domestic Felicity which it affords.

Accept, most gracious Sovereign, of the Expressions of our unshaken Affection to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, which we are happy in this fortunate Opportunity of renewing.

That this Union may be productive of the most perfect conjugal Felicity to your Majesty's Royal Daughter and her Serene Consort, and may contribute to extend and strengthen the Interests of the illustrious House of Brunswick; that the Almighty Sovereign of the Universe may ever continue with your Majesty His most gracious Protection, may defend your Royal Person, Family and Government against all foreign and domestic Enemies; and having long preserved to a free, a happy and a grateful People the Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal and auspicious Reign, may maintain the Crown of these Realms in your Majesty's Royal House to the latest Posterity, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects

Subjects the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and by Appointment of the said Provost, Magistrates and City Council of Aberdeen, in Council convened, and the Common City Seal hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 26th Day of May, in the Year 1797, by George More, Provost.

St. James's, June 3.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Elder Brethren of the Corporation of Trinity-House of Deptford Strand.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the antient Body Corporate of the Seamen of England, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express the deep Concern, which, in common with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we feel at the present disgraceful Conduct of some of the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, who, instigated, no Doubt, by the wicked Insinuations of some evil-disposed Persons, Enemies alike to your Majesty's Royal Person and to their Country, have been betrayed into Acts of Insubordination and Outrage, degrading to the Character of British Seamen, hitherto as highly distinguished for Loyalty and good Conduct, as for Intrepidity in vanquishing their Enemies: Impelled, therefore, by the Duty we owe to your Majesty and to our Country, we step forward, at this alarming Crisis, to declare our Readiness to support, with our Lives, such Measures as your Majesty, in your Wisdom, may think most expedient to adopt for the Restoration of good Order and Subordination among the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet.

Given under our Common Seal, this 2d Day of June, 1797.

[Presented by the Right Hon. William Pitt.]
