HENRY HARVEY.

Whitehall, July 15, 1797.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express the Grief and Indignation with which we contemplated the Outrages which have been committed by many of that Portion of your Majesty's Subjects who have hitherto formed the Bulwark of their Country, but who have unhappily of late been instigated by wicked and desperate Men to abandon their Duty, and to proceed to open Acts of Treason and Rebellion against your Majesty's Person and Government.

From the Wisdom and Energy which so eminently distinguish your Majesty's Councils, from the Loyalty, Zeal and Unanimity so conspicuously displayed by all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, we cherished the warmest Hopes that the Evil which threatened us would be averted, and that that System of Harmony, Peace and good Order, which has hitherto distinguished the British Navy, would be speedily restored; on the happy Accomplishment of which, permit us, Sir, to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations, and to assure your Majesty that we shall ever, in our several Stations, use our utmost Endeavours to repress all Proceedings which may have any Tendency to promote Riot, Tumult or Disunion amongst your Majesty's Subjects.

And we most fervently pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, united and affectionate People, until it shall please the Almighty to call you from your earthly Honours to the Inheritance of a Crown which fadeth not away.

Given under our Common Seal the 27th Day of June, in the 37th Year of your Majesty's Reign.
