

and being so near their own Coast, they succeeded in getting off, and some of them were seen going into the Texel the next Morning.

It is with the greatest Pleasure and Satisfaction I make known to their Lordships the very gallant Behaviour of Vice-Admiral Onslow, the Captains, Officers, Seamen and Marines of the Squadron, who all appeared actuated with the truly British Spirit, at least those that I had an Opportunity of seeing.

One of the Enemy's Ships caught Fire in the Action, and drove very near the Venerable; but I have the Pleasure to say it was extinguished, and she is one of the Ships in our Possession. The Squadron has suffered much in their Masts, Yards, and Rigging, and many of them have lost a Number of Men; however, in no Proportion to that of the Enemy. The Carnage on Board the Two Ships that bore the Admirals Flags has been beyond all Description; they have had no less than Two Hundred and Fifty Men killed and wounded on Board of each Ship; and here I have to lament the Loss of Captain Burgess, of His Majesty's Ship the Ardent, who brought that Ship into Action in the most gallant and masterly Manner, but was unfortunately killed soon after. However, the Ship continued the Action close, until quite disabled. The Public have lost a good and gallant Officer in Captain Burgess, and I, with others, a sincere Friend.

Captain Trollope's Exertions and active good Conduct in keeping Sight of the Enemy's Fleet until I came up, have been truly meritorious, and, I trust, will meet a just Reward.

I send this by Captain Fairfax, by whose able Advice I profited much during the Action, and who will give their Lordships any further Particulars they may wish to know.

As most of the Ships of the Squadron are much disabled, and several of the Prizes dismasted, I shall make the best of my Way with them to the Nore.

I herewith transmit you a List of Killed and Wounded on Board such of the Squadron as I have been able to collect; a List of the Enemy's Fleet opposed to my Squadron, and my Line of Battle on the Day of Action.

I am SIR,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

ADAM DUNCAN.
