St. James's, November 7, 1797.

THE following Address having been transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by his Grace presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to add to the universal Congratulations of your Majesty's Subjects the sincere Expression of our Satisfaction on the signal Victory obtained on the Eleventh of October instant by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Admiral Duncan; and we doubt not but that, under the Protection of Divine Providence, the utmost Efforts of your Enemies will be baffled; and we trust that the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Intrepidity of your Forces, will ensure to your loyal Subjects an honourable and speedy Peace.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our said City to be hereunto affixed, this 20th Day of October, in the Thirty-seventh Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Whitehall, October 31, 1797.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of Thursday the 19th Instant, the Dwelling-House of Stephen Tunks, Esq; of Ringwood, in the County of Southampton, was feloniously broken open and entered by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above mentioned, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (over and above the Sum of FORTY POUNDS to which by Act of Parliament the said Person will be entitled) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Stephen Tunks.

November 7, 1797.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship L'Unite, Charles Rowley, Esq; Commander, that the nett Proceeds of the Salvage of the Swallow, Cyrus, and John, recaptured by said Ship, will be paid on Wednesday the 15th Instant, at Plymouth; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled the first Wednesday in every Month, at the Fountain Tavern, Plymouth Dock, for Three Years to come.

John Lloyd, of Plymouth, Osb. Standert, of London, Agents.
