By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
February 10, 1798.

HENRY NETTLESHIPP,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whereas William Heaton, late of Almondbury, in the County of York, Yeoman, deceased, did, in and by his last Will, bearing Date the 14th Day of April, 1796, (amongst other Things) give all his Real Estate in Lindley, in the said County of York, to the Rev. Edmund Armitstead for a Term of Years, in Trust, nevertheless, to receive the Rents and Profits of it, and pay and apply the same to his Nephew, John Heaton, for the Term of his natural Life, if he should be living and made Claim thereto within Twenty Years after his (Testator's) Death; and in Case he was then dead, or did not make his Claim within the Time aforesaid, he gave it to another Person therein named. Said Testator died in November following.

The said John Heaton had then absented himself from his Family and still continues absent, not having made his Claim to the Benefit intended by the said Will, and the said Mr. Armitstead doubts whether he be yet living: If he is, he desires that he will apply to him personally, and receive what is due to him; but in case the said Mr. Armitstead be not soon satisfied of the said John Heaton's Existence, he will make Application to the Right Honorable the Lord Chancellor of Great Britain for Directions how he is to act, as he wishes to be discharged from his said Trust. Dated January 10, 1798.
