The London Gazette.

Soubtifled by Zutboaity.

T. Edenburg, Fan. $3^{1}$.

A$T$ a full meeting of the Lords of His MaJeffies Trivy Council, His Royal Higbnefs acquainted their Lordffips, Tbat he bad rereited a Lettet from ibe King, calling kim very Speedily to Court, and ibat though ke did veity cbeenfully obey all die Majeffies Commands, and retent hoilb much joy to attend the King, yet be. could not tbink of parting from tbeir Lordjbips fo foon - witbout a great deal of Relucrancy and Trouble, baving both at bis Receppion, and during all the fhort time of bis being bere, met wuith all poffible Demowftrations of Civility and Xindnefs (and as be obferved) expreffed in ibe moft cbeerful maxner, botb from -the Nability, Gentry, and from tbe Reprefentatives of $x$ be feveral Bodies of the Nation, and indeed from all Jorts of People, particularly from tbe Council, wbicb .Hik Royal wighouefs was pleafed to Say be had fo juft Refentments of, that he could not in all bid life forget rbem, and fiould not fail, upon all occafons, to mett tbeir great Kindnefs and affeltion flomo him, with all the Sarvice be was capable to do tbem. He jaid be wroald acquaint Hiv Majefly, that be bad in Scottand 4 brave and Loyal Nobility and Gentry, a Rergular Privy Council, and his fudicatures filled woithable Fetfons, well affeled to His Maj:fles Service anl IInterff, Adding, Tbat be bad objirved tboje tejltefs feeple, who ufed to give them fome trouble, were nothing fo confideraklie as their Friends the Repubican Parly in England (with whom be knew tbey kept Corsefoondence and Communication) fludied induftrioufly to yeptefent tbem to be. And that the Nobilty and Gentry bere were not only able and ready to keep tofe anquiet people in Order, but alfo be Jaw them generally $\int \frac{1}{}$ firmly united totbe Rayal Intereff, as he doutn. ed not but tbe good Condition of this Kiagdom siou'd buve a very good influence uron His Marefties affairs ih His otber Dominions. He likeroije defired tobe informed uthat account be fhoulld offer to His Majefty, as to any Procedure ag ti-ft the Rebels, axd thofe wobe were abfent from or defered the Kirgs Huft, atise Stase of which affair His Majeftizs Advocate did fully reprejeat to bis Royal Eigbnefs, who then was pleafed to recommend earneftiy to the Council, the fetling the difierexces among the Gentlemen of the Highlands, mbich be refolved to kave Jerioufly endeavurved bimelf, if His Mejeffies Call bad not provimted it. He fait be could rot but mind them of the tifighianders, in regard they bad been always oblerved so be firm to His Majefies Intereff; and it could not bur conduce to the Kinge Service to bsve them united amorget themfelves. He alfo defured the Council, asainglt the ir next meeting, to prepair any thing they diffred he might reprefent to His Majeffy, that might conduce to the advantage of the Kingdom in general, or that might promate any of its true Intereffs, withb Towhich be faid be would clarge Jimpelf very cheerful. y, annd would not fail to give ibem a fatèf af ory accoint. His Roval Highnefs concluded wortb mof? obligings and affeitimate Exprefions tomardp the Council ani tbs

Kingdom in general, repeating, That nothing but the fatistaction of waiting upon the King could Batlance the trouble he had to part fo foon from their Lord!hips,

The Lord cbancelior, in Name of the Council, acknowoledged the great bappinefs they bad in bis preSence, axd bow much they were obliged to bis good Advice and Conduit, and faid, Tbat as their Allegiance obliged them to venture their Lives and Fortures for His Majefy, 50 their Affections to His Royal Higbnefs were fuch that be might very freely in the urame of the Council, Nobility and Gentry offer the Same Lives and Fortunes to do bis Royal Highnsfs Service ufan alb occafans, and that tbey zoould give Jucb a due Reprefentation as abey could so the King, of bis Royal Highness, and of the Advaniages they enjoyed by his' Prejence and Counfels, though thef were not able to do it as the greatnefs of the Occafon required. Nor could they exprefs the great greif they bad to part fo foon with bis Royal Bighnefs. To wokich the Conacil moftcberffuily and unanimoufly afented.

Hague, Fib. 9. On Wednelday latt the Sqaies of Hollimid mer agsin, but te A ATembly not being then compleat, nothing of mim:ne was debated. The day following the King of Eng'and's Letcer to the Prirce of Orange was read there by the Heter Tan Bexningem (who underfanding Englifh very well, puc it into Duch, which perg tull of affurinces of His Majeflies Kefolution to affrat chefe Countriec, 2 2nd to bave the Parliament meot in $\alpha$ prith, if there Affiios fhuld require it, has given great farsitation the the States, who are much mare at eafe then thay were betbre. The \$po-the Example of H li:and in ifjraine the Alliance Cffered by Francr, as we are a flared the Propince of C\&er-1fe wilt likewife do. But Greningen is inclined tuxcomply with Franete and bath ferit to 1 now what Refulu ionquill be caken in It Affair by the Scates of Fiiz. $R=d$, whithenthe F.cach Ambaflador, as ue arectold, has fene one of his Oentlemen to fullicite thi- matere. Rut though thefe txo Provinces the uld diffent from the reft, wh chtiey opmmonly doin allother cades, is will Gantic. nathing, fince in $\mathrm{ma}_{\mathrm{a}}$ ters of a Nog;zive, Plurality of unices carriss ic. In the mesen time the French Amh. fodor here is very. quire, and its fatd he his Orders not to mave any incre in this Affair. The hifinefs of the States of Holland will now be to fstel thrir mi. litua for this prefiene year. It is fatd the Irench Ambarfadar has lately buinght Aaions of the $\varepsilon_{n} \neq$-Indic Companv for 7 or 8000 Poundr fitel which has made the value of th m ifice, perple imagining that be would not lay out fo cur fiucrable a sum ot "Moncy if he fawany appeararce of a rupcure; but pechaps ihi $m$ m y bedine to amufe us. The strus Zinfers has accepted ithe Embafly io tugland. It is fatd Monfitur Sommendyte is to go tor Franc, and Monforur Figard fir $S_{1}$ ai, , with che fime Chars $A$ ers. Our I tierstrem France rell us, i hac the Mint ChriAian King fecims not to take any farther notice of the fe Srates refulal in the matrer of the AIliance. Upinthe Initances of ibe Spanth Miniller bere the Scates hov: iens Orders to their Amlafldors at Pares to reprefintin the Mmuliers bere, That it being stipulared by the 13 h) Article if the Peace betwien Frunce and $5 p a n$, That eubir Dillant or Charlemoer flen'd we put invo ib bunds of ibe French wittin a vea conurimg frum the day on witin be Pa ace bermeen the tmprrit and Frarc: So wid be Rat fi $d_{f}$ and thit ite faid ant ficatimas of the fa d Prace baving beere arcbuaged on the 28 th of April 1679 ikr Statec bupe tioe Kigs mia Ncave Spaia
 the P samerpires, whibithe Fres cb fas it dees rn $: 8$.b of the prico

Higue,

