

We rely upon the Vigilance and Vigour of His Excellency's Government, which, we trust, will continue unabated, till the Conspiracy, which so fatally exists, be utterly dissolved. Sensible of the Danger which surrounds us, we are fully prepared to meet it under His Excellency's Auspices; and we feel assured that his successful Efforts in the Cause of our Sovereign and the Constitution will soon be crowned with universal Gratitude, not only from the Loyal, who have stood their Ground with Firmness, but from the Deluded, who have been traitorously seduced.

To which the Lord Lieutenant returned the following Answer:

The Manner in which the House of Commons has expressed it's Approbation of my Conduct calls for Expressions, on my Part, to which no Language I can use is equal. The Wisdom, the Firmness, and the Spirit which have been manifested, during the whole of the eventful Period, by the House of Commons, and the peculiar Promptitude, Alacrity, and Unanimity, which have been evinced, must tend, in the most effectual Manner, to crush Rebellion, and to save the State.

A Message to the same Effect having been sent by the Lord Lieutenant to the House of Lords, their Lordships voted the following Address, with similar Demonstrations of Unanimity and Zeal, and presented it to His Excellency in the same Manner.

We cannot repress our indignant Emotions at those desperate Designs which have been communicated to us, nor sufficiently applaud the Vigilance and Vigour which are exerted to defeat them. With firm and collected Resolution we express a full Confidence that His Excellency will proceed in His Measures with unrelaxed Effort; we engage to him our full Support, strengthened by the increased Activity of the Loyal, and the Repentance of the Deluded. The well-directed Force of Government, cannot fail to extinguish the Conspiracy which disgraces the Kingdom; and His Excellency will soon reap the Fruits of his unremitting Attention to public Safety in the Approbation of His Sovereign, and in the Gratitude of the People.

To which His Excellency returned the following Answer:

Your Approbation of the Measures I have taken, so ardently, immediately, and unanimously conveyed, afford me the highest Gratification: You cannot doubt of my vigorous Perseverance in what you have approved; nor can I hesitate as to the speedy Success of those Efforts, which are so warmly seconded by the Energy of the Legislature, and by the loyal Spirit which is so conspicuously and generally displayed.
