A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the indispensable Duty which We owe to Almighty God for the recent and signal Interposition of His good Providence, in Addition to the manifold and inestimable Benefits which these Kingdoms had already received at His Hands, manifested by the Blessing bestowed on Our Arms in the late memorable Battle, fought in distant Seas; as well as by the Deliverance of Our Dominions from Invasion and from intestine Commotions, through the Energy and Valour of Our Naval and Military Forces, and the Loyalty and Courage of Our faithful Subjects, which, exerted in a righteous Cause, it has pleased the Divine Goodness to crown with Success, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the Twenty-ninth Day of November next: And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to the Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses; and We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of suffering such Punishment as we may justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fourth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Thirty-eighth Year of Our Reign.

and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such, as contemn or neglect the Performance of so religious a Duty; Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, that, this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there in Our Name and Authority make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerk, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their Bounds; that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits immediately after Divine Service.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 24th of October, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant October; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for the Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant October to the Thirty-first Day of December next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fifth Day of April last, prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom of any Sort of Rock Salt, will expire upon the Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no Person or Persons, whatsoever do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-ninth Day of this instant October; export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or load or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain; any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of His Majesty in Council respecting the Exportation of Rock Salt, for preventing Suits in consequence of the same, for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Rock Salt, and for making further Provisions relative thereto:" His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent Rock Salt being carried Coastwise, under the usual Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given by the Exporter, and two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one,) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and none other, and that a Certificate shall be produced, within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe; and within Twelve Months, if for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies; and within Eighteen Months, if for any of the British Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed; and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at Weymouth, the 28th of September, 1798,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the Twenty-ninth of August, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, His Majesty was pleased to declare, that the Coasts and Ports of Genoa, and those of the Territory of the Pope, should be considered as in a State of Hostility with His Majesty, and to require all His Majesty's Subjects, and others, to treat and consider the Inhabitants and Subjects thereof as His Majesty's Enemies: His Majesty, being determined to take such further Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of His Crown, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprisals be granted against the Ships and Goods belonging to the Persons inhabiting the Coasts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now subject to the pretended Authority of Governments constituted by the Power of His Majesty's Enemies, styling themselves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks, so that as well His Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Reprisals, or otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods, belonging to the Persons inhabiting the Coasts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now subject to the pretended Authority of Governments constituted by the Power of His Majesty's Enemies, styling themselves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions; and to that End, His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at his Board, authorising the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprisals to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others, whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing, and taking the Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the Persons inhabiting the Coasts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now subject to the pretended Authority of Governments constituted by the Power of His Majesty's Enemies, styling themselves the Ligurian and Roman Republicks; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents: And His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty, at this Board, authorising the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon all, and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprisals, of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same; and according to the Course of Admiralty, and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels, and Goods, as shall belong to the Persons inhabiting the Coasts and Ports of Genoa, and the Territories of the Pope, now subject to the pretended Authority of Governments constituted by the Power of His Majesty's Enemies, styling themselves the Ligurian and the Roman Republicks; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents. And they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty, at this Board, a Draught of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Foreign Governments and Plantations, for their Guidance herein; as also another Draught of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes aforementioned.

Downing-Street, October 27, 1798.

MANIFESTO of the Sublime Porte, communicated to our esteemed Friend the Minister Plenipotentiary of the Court of Great Britain, at Constantinople, the 11th September, 1798.

T R A N S L A T I O N.

IT is notorious, that the Peace and good Harmony which, since Time immemorial have existed between the Sublime Porte and the Court of France, have never been interrupted by Enmity and Misunderstanding, but that, on the contrary, until this Period, the Sublime Porte has made it her uniform and constant Study, scrupulously to maintain the Treaties; to fulfil the Duties of Amity with Care, and upon every Occasion to give Proofs of her Sincerity and Friendship.

At the Time when the Revolution first broke out in France, Six Years ago, when most of the Powers in Europe confederated against that Country, the Sublime Porte, although a Witness to the improper Proceedings of those who held the Reins of Government by Usurpation, chose rather, in Observance of her ancient Amity with the French Nation, to remain Neutral: and though she had been several Times invited by the Allied Courts to join with them, and to break with France; although the Troubles of that Country had become more and more violent at that particular Period when an Army had reached near Paris; whilst soon after the Fortresses of Valenciennes, Condé, and Quefnoy, the Keys of France on the Northern Side, were taken by the Austrian Arms; Toulon, the only Arsenal of the French in the Mediterranean, had fallen in the Hands of the English, with the Ships of War which were in it; and by an increased Party of Royalists in their Provinces, the Situation of the Government had become more critical, and Perplexity and Distress prevailed on every Side; yet, the Sublime Porte, notwithstanding that it depended only upon herself to join with the other Powers, nevertheless, giving way to her known Principles of Justice, did no-ways consent to deviate from the Line of a Neutral Conduct.

On the contrary, considering that if under the Circumstances of a strong Famine, by which France, blocked up by Sea and Land, was afflicted, the Sublime Porte had also broken off her Connection, their distressed Situation would have been such as to throw the Inhabitants into total Desolation and Despair; she abstained from that Measure; and she hereby asks, whether it be not a Fact, that the Liberality which she has shewn to them, from Time to Time, has brought Complaints against her from other Powers?

The extensive Advantages which the French have reaped from the Sublime Porte's remaining Neutral, during the Course of the War, become clear and evident by a Moment's Glance at the Events of the War, and the Public Transactions during that Period. Whilst, therefore, in consideration of the uniform Acts of Condescension, thus observed towards them by the Sublime Porte, they, on their Side, ought also to have been steady in preserving Peace; yet, those among them, who found the Means of assuming to themselves the Reins of Government by Favour of the Revolution, began to devise various Pretences, and, under an illusive Idea of Liberty,—a Liberty so called in Word, but which in Reality knows no other Laws but the Subversion of every established Government, (after the Example of France,) the Abolishment of all Religions, the Destruction of every Country, the Plunder of Property, and the Dissolution of all Human Society,—to occupy themselves in nothing but in misleading and imposing upon the Ignorant amongst the People, pretending to reduce Mankind to the State of the Brute Creation; and this, to favour their own private Interests, and render the Government permanent in their own Hands.

Actuated by such Principles, they made it their Maxim to stir up and corrupt, indiscriminately, the Subjects of every Power, whether distant or near; either in Peace or at War, and to excite them to revolt against their natural Sovereigns and Government.

Whilst, on one Hand, their Minister at Constantinople, pursuant to that System of Duplicity and Deceit which is their Custom every where, made Professions of Friendship for the Ottoman Empire, endeavouring to make the Sublime Porte the Dupe of their insidious Projects, and to forward their Object of exciting her against other friendly Powers; the Commanders and Generals of their Army in Italy, upon the other Hand, were engaged in the heinous Attempt of perverting the Subjects of His Majesty the Grand Signior, by sending Agents (Persons notorious for their intriguing Practices) into Anatolia, Morea, and the Islands of the Archipelago, and by spreading Manifestoes of the most insidious Tenor, among which the One addressed by Buonaparte to the People of Macrio, with several others distributed by the same, are sufficiently known to the Publick.

Upon the Sublime Porte's complaining to the Directory of this Conduct of their Commanders and Generals, their Answer was,—that all Proceedings on the Part of their Officers, contrary to Friendship, were not with the Consent of the Directory; that the same should be prevented, and their Officers warned against it; the Wish of the French Government being to strengthen more and more the ancient Friendship subsisting with the Sublime Porte.

In consequence of this Answer, delivered officially on their Part, it was expected, that the said Generals would have left off their seditious Pursuits. But, nevertheless, no Change appearing in their Conduct, and their Perseverance in such insidious Practices being greater than ever, it became obvious that the Answers of the Directory were only fictitious and deceitful; that the intriguing Attempts of their Agents could not but be dictated by the Instructions which were given them; and consequently, that any further Complaint would be of no avail whatever.

Notwithstanding these Transactions, however, the Sublime Porte, in the Hopes of the Directory altering its System of Conduct, and laying aside the senseless Pursuit of wishing to overturn the Universe; in Expectation of seeing Things in France, from the harassed Situation of that Country, at length take a different Turn, by the People refusing to bear any longer those intolerable Evils and Disasters which have been brought upon them from the personal Views of a few upstart Individuals since the Commencement of the Revolution; and with the View of preventing secret Enmity from producing an open Rupture; she did not alter her Course, but preferred keeping Silence.

In the Beginning of the War with the other Powers, the French Government had declared, that their Intention was not to acquire new Territory, but on the contrary, to restore every such Conquest as might have been made by their Arms during the Contest: Contrary to which, they not only have kept Possession of various extensive Provinces, snatched by them from the Belligerent Powers; but not content with this, profiting of the Changes which had prevailed among the Allied Courts through their Intrigues, have put off the Mask entirely, and, developing their secret Views, without Reason or Justice, have fallen upon several Free and Independent Republicks and States who had held themselves Neutral, like the Sublime Porte; invading their Territories when, least provided with the Means of Defence, and subjecting them to their Will by open Force and Hostility.

Thus, no one being left to control them; they tore the Veil of all Decorum at once; and, unmindful of the Obligations of Treaties; and to convince the World that Friendship and Enmity are the same Thing in their Eyes; contrary to the Rights of Nations, and in Violation of the Ties subsisting between the Two Courts; they came, in a Manner altogether unprecedented, like a Set of Pirates, and made a sudden Invasion in Egypt, the most precious among the Provinces of the Ottoman Porte; of which they took forcible Possession at a Time when they had experienced nothing from this Court but Demonstrations of Friendship.

Upon the first Surmise of the French Project to invade that Province, Ruffin, their Chargé d'Affaires at this Residence, was invited to a Conference, where he was questioned officially about this Business: He first declared he had no Intelligence whatever respecting it; but he gave it, as a Speculation of his own, that if such an Enterprize ever proved true, it probably must be to take Revenge of the Beys, and to annoy and attack the English Settlements in the East Indies.

In answer to this it was circumstantially stated to him, that the smallest Attempt, on the Part of the French, upon Cairo, on whatever Pretext it might be founded, would be taken as a Declaration of War, and thereby the Friendship subsisting between the Two Courts since the most ancient Times, would, both in a legal and political Sense, be converted into Enmity; that the Ottoman Empire would not suffer the Loss of a Handful of Sand of the Egyptian Territory; that the whole Ottoman Sect would set itself in Motion for the Deliverance of those blessed Lands; and that if the Chastisement of the Beys of Egypt was necessary, it behoved the Sublime Porte to inflict it on them as her Dependents; that the Interference of the French in this Business was inconsistent with the Rights of Nations; that the Court of Great Britain, being the dearest Friend of the Ottoman Empire, the Sublime Porte would never consent to the Passage of French Troops through her Territory to act against their Settlements; that in short, should even their Expedition to Egypt have no other Object but this, it would be equally construed into a Declaration of War; of all which he was charged to make the earliest Communication to the Directory in this very Language.

Dispatches, bearing Instructions to the same Effect, were at the same Time written to Aali Efendi, the Sublime Porte's Ambassador at Paris, who was moreover directed to demand officially an Explanation of the Matter upon the Spot.

Before the Communications sent by Ruffin to the Directory, and the Dispatches transmitted by the Sublime Porte to her Ambassador beforenamed, a Letter of an old Date was received by the said Ruffin, expressing that Buonaparte's Expedition to Egypt was true, but that the Object was to secure some Commercial Advantages by bringing the Beys to an Account, and to hurt Great Britain; that an Ambassador had been appointed to prefer several Propositions favourable to the Interests of the Ottoman Porte, and to adjust the Affair in question; with this further ridiculous Hint, that were the Porte to declare War for this against the Republic, both Courts would lay themselves open to an Attack on the Part of the Emperor; all this the said Chargé d'Affaires delivered officially, and he also presented a Copy of that Letter.

Upon the other Hand, in the Answer received meanwhile from the Ottoman Ambassador above-mentioned, it was stated, that, in conformity to his Instructions, he had had an Interview with Talleyrand Perigord, the Minister of External Relations, in which he had produced his Dispatches, explained their Purport, and demanded officially a categorical Answer: That the said Minister (forgetting, as is to be supposed, the Tenor of the Letter which had been written to Ruffin some Time before) positively disavowed the Expedition against Egypt, and said that Buonaparte's Commission had no other Object but the Conquest of Malta; that the Abolition of the Order there being a Measure conducive to the Benefit of all the Turks, the Sublime Porte ought to feel even obliged by it; that the Directory had nothing more at Heart than to maintain the Peace existing with the Porte since Time immemorial, and more and more to strengthen the same; thus barefacedly exhibiting a Farce of the most artful Duplicity.

The wide Contradiction between the above Two Communications, being visibly a fresh Artifice by which to mislead the Ottoman Porte with her Eyes open, and to gain Time until Intelligence could be procured respecting the Affair of Egypt, the Result of which had not then come to their Knowledge; must not this most extraordinary Event be taken as a palpable Demonstration, that the Directors of the French Government, to second their own Ambition and Arrogance, have actually lost all Recollection of those Laws observed and maintained in every regular Government, and that no Faith whatever is to be placed in their Words and Professions?

From the Tenor of their arbitrary Proceedings and despotic Conduct, as too well witnessed from first to last, it is clear and evident, that their Project is no other, but to banish every orderly Institution from the Face of the World; to upset Human Society; and, by an alternate Play of secret Intrigue or open Hostility, as best suits their End, to derange the Constitution of every established independent State, by creating (as they have done in Italy) a Number of small Republicks, of which the French is to be the Parent Mother, and thus to sway and to conduct every Thing after their own Will every where.

Now Egypt being the Portal of the Two venerable Cities, (Mecca and Medina), and the present Operations in that Quarter being of a Nature affecting all the Mohamedan Sect at large, the Sublime Porte, consistently with her express Declarations to the above French Chargé d'Affaires, and through her Ambassador to the Directory at Paris, feels compelled, by every Law, to resist the sudden and unprovoked Aggressions and Hostilities committed by the French as above, and with a full Confidence in the Assistance of the Omnipotent

God, to set about repelling and destroying the Enemy by Sea and Land. Thus, to wage War against France, is become a Precept of Religion incumbent upon all Mussulmen.

In consequence whereof, the afore-named Chargé d'Affaires, together with the Officers of that Mission, have been sent to the Seven Towers, to be detained there as Hostages until such Time as Aali Efendi before-named, and those of his Retinue, be arrived from Paris: And the Consuls, Merchants, and French Properties in Constantinople, and in other Parts of the Ottoman Empire, shall also be kept in Deposit and as a Security, until the Merchants, Dependents of the Sublime Porte, with their Shipping and Properties, as also the public Ships, with their Equipages, detained in the Province of Egypt, (Prisoners of War excepted,) be set at Liberty.

To repel the Perfidy of these Usurpers, who have raised the Standard of Rebellion and Trouble in France, is a Measure, in which not the Safety and Tranquillity of the Sublime Porte alone, but also that of all the Powers in Europe is concerned. Wherefore the best Hopes are entertained of the cordial Co-operation of all friendly Courts, as well as of their Disposition to fulfil by every Means in their Power, their Duties of Friendship and of Assistance in the present Cause.

1 Rebulakbir, 1213. (11 September, 1798.)

IMPERIAL DECREE, promulgated at the Porte on Saturday, 1st September.

TRANSLATION.

To you, Kaimakam-Pasha, these are addressed,

EVER since the Supreme Vizir, Izzed Mehemmed Pasha, came to that Office, Instructions were constantly given him to attend to the Defence of the Ottoman Dominions, and never to be off his Guard against the Plots of Enemies. He, however, from selfish Motives, has attended to nothing but his own Interest; so that in the Dark himself, with respect to the evil Designs of those *brutish Infidels the French, from not procuring proper Intelligence, he did not apprise the Inhabitants of Egypt thereof in good Time.

When the unhappy Tidings from thence came to Our Imperial Ear, a full Month after that insufferable Event had come to pass, such were Our Grief and Concern, that We take God to Witness, it drew tears from Our Eyes, and deprived Us of Sleep and Rest.

We have, therefore, immediately deposed him from the Office of Grand Vizir, and have appointed, in his Place, Youssouff Pasha, Governor of Erzerum; until whose Arrival at Our Sublime Gate, we appoint and constitute you, Mustafa Bey, to be Kaimakam.

Now, it being incumbent upon all true Believers to combat those faithless Brutes the French, and it being become a positive Duty for Our Imperial Person to deliver the blessed Territories from their accursed Hands, and to revenge the Insult which they have offered to Mussulmans, no Delay whatever is to take place for the Arrival of the new Vizir; but the most vigorous Measures must be pursued to attack them by Sea and Land.

Wherefore, by a Deliberation with the Illustrious, Lawyers, Ministers, and Chieftains, our Subjects, you must (with a full Confidence in God and his Prophet) fix upon the effectual Means of freeing the Province of Egypt from the Presence of such Wretches. You will acquaint all the true Believers in the respective Quarters, that We are at War with the French; and, turning Night into Day, will apply your utmost Efforts to take Revenge of them.

You will adopt the most vigilant Conduct towards defending the other Mohamedan Provinces; and our Imperial Frontiers, from the Plots and Malice of the Enemy, by the due Reinforcement of every Port and Place with Troops and Military Stores.

You will likewise direct your zealous Attention towards the due Supply of Daily Provisions to the Inhabitants of this Our Imperial Residence; and will watch over the Affairs of all Persons in general, until the Supreme Vizir do arrive.

We shall observe your Exertions; and may the Omnipotent God ordain his Divine Favour to attend Our Undertakings, and render Us successful in the Vindication of Our Cause.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Bridport, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Spithead, the 24th Instant.

S I R,

THE enclosed Copy of a Letter which I received this Morning will manifest to their Lordships the Courage, Skill, and Intrepidity of Captain Martin, his Officers, and Ship's Company, in the Capture of the French Frigate L'Immortalité, after a persevering and brilliant Action against a Ship of such superior Force.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

BRIDPORT.

Fisgard, Plymouth Sound, October 22, 1798.

My Lord,

IN Compliance with your Order of the 17th Instant, I proceeded with all possible Dispatch to the Southward, and on the 20th Instant, having arrived in Latitude 48 Deg. 23 Min. North, Longitude 7 Deg. West, I had the Satisfaction to fall in with a large French Frigate, and, after an Hour's running Fight, came to close Action with her, which lasted for Twenty-five Minutes, when the Fisgard became perfectly ungovernable; the Bows-lines, Braces, Topfail-Ties, Back-Stays, and the whole of the Running Rigging being cut to Pieces. At this critical Moment she endeavoured to make off, but the Activity of the Officers and Ship's Company in repairing the Damages and making Sail, soon enabled us to close with her again, and the Fight was renewed and continued with great Spirit and Resolution for an Hour and Fifty Minutes, when she surrendered to His Majesty's Ship, and proved to be L'Immortalité, a new Frigate, mounting Forty-two Guns, Twenty-four-Pounders on the Main-Deck, and Nine-Pounders, with Forty-two-Pound Carronades on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle, commanded by Citizen Le-Grand, who was killed in the Action. She was one of the Squadron that composed the Expedition to Ireland; and at the Commencement of the Action had on board Five Hundred and Eighty Men, including General Menage, Second in Command of the Troops, (who was also killed in the Action,) Adjutant-General Crazey, and some Soldiers.

I should wish to recommend the steady good Conduct of Mr. Carden, First Lieutenant of the Fisgard, on this Occasion, but not to the Prejudice of any other Person, as every Officer and Man on board behaved with that Courage and Intrepidity which at all Times distinguishes His Majesty's Subjects in the Presence of the Enemy. Annexed is a List of Killed and Wounded. I am sorry to say, Thirteen of our wounded Men have suffered so much as to preclude all Hope of their Recovery.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. B. MARTIN.

Whitehall, October 27, 1798.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir William Scott, Knight, His Majesty's Advocate-General, to the Office of Judge of the High Court of Admiralty of England.

Windsor, Tuesday, October 23, 1798.

Yesterday, at a Quarter past Six o'Clock, P. M. Their Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses arrived here from Weymouth in perfect Health.

St. James's, October 24, 1798.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty (being introduced by the Lord in Waiting) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach your Majesty with our warmest Congratulations on the very important Victory lately obtained off the Nile, by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson; over a French Fleet, superior in Force, and in a chosen Situation extremely advantageous to the Enemy.

We take the earliest Opportunity of testifying to your Majesty our heartfelt Joy at an Event so glorious to this Nation, so splendid and decisive, unexampled in Naval History, and reflecting the highest Honor on the Courage and Abilities of the gallant Admiral and his Officers, and the Discipline and irresistible Bravery of British Seamen:

So complete a Destruction of the French Navy in that Part of the World must be productive of the most beneficial Consequences. We trust it will frustrate the exterminating Designs of an overbearing and implacable Enemy; rouse other States to resist and circumscribe their wide-extending Power; and, by its brilliant Effect, excite the Admiration of surrounding Nations.

May the Almighty continue to give Effect to your Majesty's Arms, and thereby insure Security to your Dominions, and Happiness to your People; and, as soon as it shall please His Divine Will, restore to your Majesty's Kingdoms, on a firm and lasting Basis, the Blessings of Peace.

Signed by Order of Court,

WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:

I Receive with peculiar Satisfaction the Congratulations of My loyal City of London on the late glorious Victory obtained, under the Blessing of God, by My Fleet commanded by Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, over that of the Enemy at the Mouth of the Nile.

I trust that the Valour of My Fleets and Armies, the Talents and Conduct of My Officers, which were never more conspicuous than on this late Occasion, the vigorous and united Exertions of the whole Body of My People, and, above all, the Protection of Almighty God, will enable Me to bring the War in which We are engaged, by the unjust Aggression of our Enemies, to a safe and honorable Conclusion.

My City of London may be assured of My constant Attention to their Interests and Welfare.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, October 24, 1798.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of the Trinity House of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of this Maritime Corporation, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our hearty Congratulations on the Victory which it pleased Almighty God, on the First of August, to give your Majesty's Squadron under the Command of Admiral Sir Horatio, now Baron Nelson, over the Grand Fleet of the French in the Mediterranean; a Victory than which the Annals of British History do not afford an Instance of one more glorious and complete.

With Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the Allwise Disposer of Events for this additional instance of his Protection, we presume to assure your Majesty, that our Loyalty and Attachment to your Person and Government is the most warm and sincere, and that our fervent Hope and Trust is, that the same Almighty Arm will continue to bless your Majesty's Fleets and Armies with Victory, until that most invaluable Blessing Peace be restored to your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of this Guild, the 10th Day of October, in the Thirty-ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Henry Denton, } Wardens.
Thos. Locke, }

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Leeds, and Samuel Thornton, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Corporation.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the brilliant and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Sir Horatio Nelson; an Event which evinces the Wisdom and Discernment of those to whom your Majesty has entrusted the Government of the Navy, and must reflect immortal Honor on that illustrious Commander and the brave Companions of his Victory.

Amidst the Joy which this auspicious Event has diffused through all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, permit us, Royal Sire! to express the ardent Hope we entertain, that the repeated Victories with which it hath pleased the Almighty to bless your Arms, may be the Means of terminating the War which has so long afflicted the World, and of securing to your Majesty's Subjects (the most valuable Fruit of successful War) an honorable and permanent Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the 6th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

[Presented by His Grace the Duke of Leeds, High Steward of the said Corporation, and Samuel Thornton, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our most lively Felicitations on the glorious Victory obtained over the French Fleet by that of your Majesty, under the Command of Admiral Nelson; a Victory unparalleled in the Annals of History.

In considering the Consequences of an Event of so much Importance, we are not unmindful that our Duty, as Christians, points out to us the Adorations we ought to make to the Almighty Being, who, on so many Occasions, has preserved this Kingdom, when threatened by the hostile Attempts of our Enemies; and who, during the present calamitous War, carried on by the boundless Ambition of the unprincipled Rulers of a deluded and unfortunate People, has continued to us the Enjoyments of internal Peace and Tranquillity; and we pray that your Majesty may be the happy Means, under his Providence, of restoring the Blessings of a permanent Peace to the Nations so long ravaged by the Horrors of War.

When we reflect on the matchless Valour and Intrepidity of all your Majesty's Officers and Seamen in this great Battle, we consider it with the Pride of Britons as a Criterion of the Value of that Pledge so unanimously entered into of unshaken Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty and your Illustrious Family, and determined Resolution to live or die in the Support and Defence of that Constitution which has raised us to our envied Greatness, and secures to us the full Enjoyment of true Liberty.

That your Majesty may long reign over a free, happy, and united People is our earnest Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, the 13th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1798.

John Hodding, Town Clerk.

[Presented by the Mayor, attended by Earl Pembroke, High Steward, the Honorable Major Bouverie, and Hussy, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common-Council assembled, present our unfeigned Congratulation on the late glorious and most important Victory, vouchsafed by Divine Providence to these Kingdoms by the Squadron under the Command of Rear Admiral Lord Nelson; a Victory highly honorable to the distinguished Commander, and a lasting Memorial of British Conduct and Valour.

We gratefully esteem this National Blessing as truly propitious to the Justice of our Warfare, and eventually conducive to the Interests of Europe.

May the splendid Success of your Majesty's Arms still continue to frustrate the ambitious Designs of our foreign Enemy; and the effective Measures of your Council suppress the Commotions of domestic Faction; so shall your happy and affectionate People (ever conscious of your Majesty's Care and Protection) rejoice in the Safety of their Civil and Religious Liberties, and glory in the Maintenance of an unrivalled Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City, this 19th Day of October, in the Thirty-eighth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Presented by Earl Camden, the Recorder, attended by the Master of the Rolls and Lord J. Thynne, Representatives in Parliament for the City of Bath.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgessees of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Portefmouth, in Common-Hall assembled, do most humbly beg Leave to convey to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, over that of the Enemy, off the Mouth of the Nile. And we further beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, it is our fervent Prayer, that Almighty God will still vouchsafe to direct your Majesty's Arms, so that through his Divine Interposition you may ultimately be enabled to obtain for these your Realms, a safe, honorable, and lasting Peace.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal, this 15th Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

George Cuthbert, Mayor.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Hugh Seymour and Thomas Erskine, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Town.]

Whitehall, October 3, 1798.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 14th Day of July last, a Letter containing Twenty-two Bills, to the Amount of 2340l. 14s. 7d. was put into the Post-Office at Manchester, by Mr. Josiah Richardson Saunders, of that Town, addressed to Messrs. Jones, Loyd, Hulme, and Co. Bankers, London; and no Account having been obtained of the said Letter or Bills:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in secreting or destroying the same, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually so secreted or destroyed the said Letter and Bills) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Josiah Richardson Saunders, of Manchester.

Whitehall, October 23, 1798.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that Anthony Kidman, alias Ante, by Trade an Anchor-Smith and Coal-Heaver, William Bartel, Brick-Maker and Coal-Heaver, John M'Gee, a Coal-Heaver, James Harwood, a Coal-Heaver, George Bett, nicknamed Sarjeant, a Coal-Heaver, Samuel Sawyer, Brick-Maker and Coal-Heaver, and Peter Firley, nicknamed the Jumper, a Coal-Heaver, with sundry others, stand charged with having been concerned in a desperate and outrageous Tumult and Riot, and in atrocious Acts of Violence, on Tuesday the 16th Day of October, at the Marine Police-Office in Wapping, whereby the said Office was assaulted between the Hours of Eight and Nine in the Evening, and the Windows broken and destroyed, and large Stones thrown in upon the Magistrates while in the Execution of their official Duty, with other atrocious Outrages and Acts of Violence; and that Gabriel Franks, a Master Lumpier attached to the said Office, was shot in the open Street while assisting in quelling the said Riot, and is since dead of the Wounds he then received; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said atrocious Murder and Riot, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually shot the said Gabriel Franks,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making Discovery of the Person or Persons who shot the said Gabriel Franks; and a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person who shall make Discovery of the Ringleaders and Persons principally assistant in the said Riot and Outrage, so that he, she, or they may be convicted of the same; such Rewards to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

PERSONAL LEGACY DUTY.

Stamp-Office, Sept. 7, 1798.

WHEREAS by an Act passed on the 26th Day of April, in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, "That upon every Legacy, Specific or Pecuniary, of the Value of 20l. or more, given by any Will or Testamentary Instrument of any Person who shall die after the passing of the said Act, out of the Personal Estate of the Person so dying, and also upon the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of every Person who shall so die, whether Testate or Intestate, and leave Personal Estate of the clear Value of 100l. after deducting Debts, Funeral Expences, and other Charges; there shall be raised, levied, and collected, for the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Duties, after the Rates, and in Manner therein particularly mentioned:"

AND WHEREAS HIS MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS FOR MANAGING THE STAMP DUTIES have Reason to believe that the Duties which have become payable under the said Act upon Legacies bequeathed, as well as upon the Residue of the Personal Estate and Effects of many Persons who have died since the said 26th Day of April, the Day of passing the said Act, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said Act; and the said Commissioners have also Reason to believe that the Duties imposed by several other Acts on Legacies, and the Residue of Personal Estate, not subject to the Duties imposed by the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign, have not been duly answered and paid, and proper Receipts or Discharges given for such Legacies and Personal Estate, according to the said former Acts, and also according to the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign: THE COMMISSIONERS THEREFORE DO HEREBY GIVE NOTICE, That Proceedings will be had against all Persons who shall appear to have offended against the said Acts, to recover the Amount of the Duties payable under the said Acts re-

Specifically, together with the Penalties incurred by such Persons as shall appear not to have complied with the Terms of the said Acts. AND THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by the said Act of the 36th Year of His Majesty's Reign, all Persons paying and receiving Legacies or Personal Estate, subject to the said Duties, without receiving and allowing thereout respectively the Duties payable thereon, are chargeable with the said Duties as Debts due to His Majesty, and both Parties are respectively liable to Penalties, in case of Payment of such Legacies, without such Receipt or Discharge as required by the Act.

THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO GIVE NOTICE, That by an Act passed in the 37th Year of His Majesty's Reign, It is Enacted, "That every Person who shall Administer the Personal Estate of any Person dying after the passing of the said Act, or any Part thereof, without proving the Will of the Deceased, or taking out Letters of Administration of such Personal Estate within Six Calendar Months after the Death of the Person so dying, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS, to be recovered as therein is mentioned, One Moiety thereof to His Majesty, and the other to the Person who shall sue for the same."

By Order of the Commissioners,
J. Brettell, Secretary.
