Whitehall, October 30, 1798.

THE following Addresses have been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, Council, and Community of the City of Edinburgh, humbly offer our heartfelt Congratulations on the late most signal and important Victory, with which the Almighty has blessed your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of your illustrious Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

While so many other States have yielded to the destructive and insulting Ambition of France, we look up with Respect and Gratitude to our Sovereign, who, in Times the most alarming, has stood firm to preserve the Independence, the Freedom, the Happiness, and the Honour of Britain; and we rejoice with your faithful Subjects in this new and glorious Encouragement which your Majesty has received, to persevere in so great and so good a Cause.
