

and that, by a general and vigorous Co-operation, the Enemy may be speedily compelled to accept such Terms as shall restore to those Countries now suffering under his Usurpation and Tyranny, a Re-establishment of their former Governments, and ensure to this and the other Countries of Europe an honorable and permanent Peace.

Robt. Miller, Town Clerk.

St. James's, November 21, 1798.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your City of Aberdeen, beg Leave, with all Humility and Respect to present to your Majesty our warmest and most sincere Congratulations on the late glorious and important Successes obtained by your Majesty's Fleets, on the Coasts of Egypt and of Ireland, as well as in every other Part where the Ships of the Enemy have been encountered.

While we amply participate in the Joy universally diffused over your Majesty's Dominions by the Continuance of that Series of Victories which has carried the Naval Glory of Great Britain to a Degree of Splendor hitherto unknown, and afforded so great Security to these Realms against the daring Efforts of unprincipled Enemies, we feel ourselves deeply impressed with Gratitude to that Over-ruling Providence, which has rendered your Majesty's Arms so eminently triumphant, and distinguished your People by those peculiar Blessings which they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Reign.

That it may ever please the Supreme Ruler of the World to continue to your Majesty's Arms that Course of Victory from which so much Glory has redounded to the British Name; and that the Enemy, at last humbled by repeated Defeats, may soon be brought to adopt those Sentiments and Terms of Peace which are compatible with the Dignity of your Majesty's Crown, with the Security of your Dominions, and with the Happiness of your People; are the fervent Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Aberdeen, in Common-Council assembled.

Signed in their Name and Presence, and by their Appointment, and the Common City Seal is hereto affixed, at Aberdeen, the 8th Day of November, in the Year 1798, by Thos. Leys, Provost.

[Transmitted to the Duke of Portland, by the Provost of Aberdeen.]

NO. 15082.

B

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Comburgeesses, Town-Clerk, and Burgeesses of the Town or Borough of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, impressed with a due Regard and Attachment to your sacred Person, think it our Duty, and are induced thus to approach the Throne and humbly to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty on the ever-memorable and glorious Victory obtained by your Fleet, under the Command of that gallant Admiral Lord Nelson, (with the Assistance of Divine Providence,) over the French Fleet off the Nile, unparalleled in the Annals of History. And we take the same Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the more recent Victory gained by your Squadron under the Command of Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren, Baronet, (with the same Divine Assistance,) over the French Detachment destined for a Descent on the Sister Kingdom, a Victory also of the utmost Consequence, inasmuch as the Intentions of the Enemy were obviously to renew the late unhappy Rebellion in that Kingdom, and to assist the Traitorous in carrying their diabolical Plans into Execution.

These and the many other glorious Victories which have so highly distinguished your Majesty's Naval Forces, must (considering also your very superior Forces acting under the Wisdom and Vigilance of your Majesty and Councils) soon compel our haughty and inveterate Enemy to propose or accede to such Terms of Pacification as will be consistent with the Interests and Safety of your Majesty, and all your loving Subjects.

That your Majesty may have an uninterrupted Enjoyment of all the Comforts and Blessings of Life, and that we may long continue to be governed by a Monarch who so highly merits the Esteem and Adoration of his People, is our most ardent Wish.

Given under my Hand and the Common Seal of this Borough, in open Court, the 14th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1798.

John Hemingway, Alderman.
