

resistible Bravery of his Men; which will add a lasting Splendour to the British Name; and, we trust, will be productive of the most beneficial and important Consequences.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events continue to give Effect to your Majesty's Councils, and the Exertions of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, in Defence of our dearest Interests, and our invaluable Constitution.

We indulge the Hope and earnestly pray, that the numerous and decisive Victories obtained by British Valour may effectually secure your Majesty's Dominions, and lead to the Blessings of a speedy, honorable, and lasting Peace.

William Edwards, Chairman.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord George Henry Cavendish.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Derby, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Brethren, and Capital Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Derby, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations on the many and splendid Victories obtained by your Majesty's Arms; more especially we do, with the most heartfelt Satisfaction, congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious and important Victory atchieved by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson, over the Fleet of a haughty and ambitious Enemy; a Victory which reflects the highest Honor on the gallant Admiral and his Officers, and evinces the irresistible Bravery of his Men, which will add a lasting Splendour to the British Name; and, we trust, will be productive of the most beneficial and important Consequences.

May the Almighty Disposer of Events continue to give Effect to your Majesty's Councils, and the Exertions of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects in Defence of our dearest Interests and our invaluable Constitution.

We indulge the Hope, and earnestly pray, that the numerous and decisive Victories obtained by British Valour may effectually secure your Majesty's Dominions, and lead to the Blessings of a speedy, honorable, and lasting Peace.

Given under the Common-Seal of the Borough of Derby, the 20th Day of November, 1798.

William Edwards, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assisant Justices, Capital Burgeses, and Burgeses of the Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Bury Saint Edmunds, in the County of Suffolk, impressed with a due Sense of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the most sincere Congratulations on the signal Instances of Success with which your Majesty's Navy hath been blessed in various Parts of the Globe. We do not particularize any, lest, by distinguishing one, we might be thought to detract from the Merit of others. Under Divine Providence, we are persuaded no Force can stand against British Valour; and with this Persuasion, we cannot but indulge a Hope, that all those Nations which at present groan under, or are threatened with, French Anarchy, will have Cause to participate in our Joy, if the repeated Success of your Majesty's Arms shall be crowned with the Blessings of Peace.

Permit us, Sire, to add our earnest Wishes for the Continuation of your Majesty's Health, and of every Branch of your Royal Family.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Lord Harvey, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Town of Beverley, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of Beverley, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the brilliant and decisive Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson, and on the Destruction of the Fleet destined by our inveterate Enemy for the Invasion of Ireland, by Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren; Events which clearly evince the Vigilance and Discernment of those to whom your Majesty hath entrusted the Conduct of the Navy, and which must reflect lasting Honor on those illustrious Commanders, and the brave Companions of their Victories.

With our Congratulations on those auspicious Events which have diffused universal Joy throughout all Ranks of your Majesty's Subjects, permit us, Royal Sire, to mingle our ardent Hopes, that the repeated Victories with which it hath pleased the Almighty to bless your Arms may accelerate the Return of Peace; and at length convince our inveterate Foes, that their Attempts to invade these Kingdoms by open Force are as vain as the insidious Arts which they have so long employed to overturn our happy Constitution, by endeavouring to alienate the Affection of your Majesty's Subjects.

With our Praises to the Almighty for his Protection of our Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, we shall ever blend our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a free, united, and happy People.

Given under our Common-Seal the 22d Day of November, in the 39th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

B. Tuke, Mayor.

[Presented by Major General Burton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of this your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Leominster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Con-
