

gratulations on our late signal and unexampled Naval Triumphs, but more particularly on the brilliant and important Victory obtained, by the Blessing of Divine Providence, over a superior Force of the Enemy off the Mouth of the Nile, by that gallant and meritorious Officer Sir Horatio (now Lord) Nelson—a Victory which has tended to humble the Pride and Insolence of an inveterate and implacable Enemy.

Animated with the most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, we rejoice in the Prospect of the Advantages and happy Consequences that will accrue to this Kingdom from such signal Success; and we look forward with the most pleasing Expectations to the Moment when we shall have to triumph in the greatest of all Blessings, a firm, safe, and honorable Peace.

At the same Time that we rejoice in the Success of your Majesty's Naval Forces, we beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the Destruction of those Plans which have been employed for the Subversion of all Order in a Neighbouring Kingdom, and on the speedy Prospect of the Restoration of Peace and Tranquillity.

From the firmest Principles of Loyalty and Regard, we trust your Majesty will be assured of our hearty Endeavours to promote every Measure conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the Welfare, Prosperity, and Interests of these Kingdoms.

Sealed with our Seal, and dated this 28th Day of November, 1798.

Edward Woodhouse, Bailiff.

[Presented by William Taylor, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

St. James's, December, 5, 1798.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Grand Lodge, and of the Masons of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Master and other Officers of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, with the Masters, Officers, and Proxies of Lodges and Brethren in Grand Lodge assembled, again approach your Royal Person with our warmest Congratulations on the late signal and brilliant Victory obtained by your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Admiral Lord Nelson.

The Consequences of this glorious Defeat, though at a Distance from our native Shores, is highly important to the Interests of your Majesty's Realms; and when coupled with the still more recent Destruction of this daring Foe, who threatened a Descent upon our Coasts, we may consider our Naval Successes as complete, beyond all historic Example.

We devoutly pray that, through Divine Providence, your Majesty's Arms may at all Times be enabled, by such gallant Exploits, to counteract the Machinations of our Enemies, and by these Means accelerate the Return of an honorable and permanent Peace.

Signed in Name, by Appointment, and in Presence of the Brethren, this 30th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1798.

James Stirling, Grand-Master Mason of Scotland.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Deemsters of the Island of Man, ever animated with Sentiments of purest Loyalty and warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, beg Leave now most humbly to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the late memorable Successes of your Majesty's Arms at the Mouth of the Nile; a Victory in Glory unequalled in Naval History; and since, off the Coast of Ireland; baffling at once the combined Views of Foreign Enemies and Domestic Traitors. And we humbly trust, Sir, that with the continued Blessing of the Most High, on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and on the Exertion of your Fleets and Armies, our deluded Fellow-Subjects in the Sister Kingdom will soon be brought back to a proper Sense of their best Interests, as well as Duty, in a due Submission to that Government and those Laws under which these Realms have prospered in a Degree hitherto unparalleled; and that the other Nations of Europe, roused by these Events, the Consequences of your Majesty's Vigor and Perseverance, will see their only Safety in bravely adopting a similar Line of Conduct, and share with your Majesty in the Glory of restoring Peace to Europe, on Terms of Honor and of Safety, preserving the Independence of Nations, and securing the true Liberties of Mankind.

Alex. Shaw.

Claudius, Sodor and Man.

Robert Heywood.

Mark H. Quayle.

John Crellin.

Ev. Christian.

John Law,

John Crellin,

} Deemsters.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Governor Shaw.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Keys, the Constitutional Representatives of the People of the Isle of Man.

CONNECTED as we are with Great Britain, though unimportant in ourselves, we beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with Sentiments of the most sincere and cordial Attachment to your Royal Person and Government, and with most heartfelt Pleasure to congratulate your Majesty on the brilliant and glorious Victories lately obtained by your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of Admiral Lord Nelson, off the Mouth of the Nile, and Sir John Borlase Warren, on the Coast of Ireland, over the Fleets of France; Victories which, under Divine Providence, we trust will tend to procure for your Majesty's Dominions and the States of

