

the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Sufferance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25, and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above-mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil, or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel, or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above-mentioned, in the case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

St. James's, January 2, 1799.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry,
Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surrey, beg Leave, with unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment, and with the utmost Respect, to approach your Majesty with our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the great and glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Arms under the Command of Rear-Admiral Lord Nelson over the French Fleet at the Mouth of the Nile.

An Event so decisive and important in itself, as to have excited the Admiration of Europe, when combined with the other many and signal Successes of your Majesty's Forces both at Home and Abroad, cannot fail of striking Terror and Dismay into the Hearts of your Enemies. And we humbly hope, that, under the Blessing of Almighty God, and through the Energy and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, seconded as they have hitherto been, and we doubt not ever will be, by the undegenerated Courage, Enterprize, and Skill of your Fleets and Armies, and by the unexampled Zeal and Unanimity displayed by all Descriptions of your Subjects; it may be the Means of attaining that first and most anxious Wish of your Majesty's Heart, and the great End and Object to which all our Exertions have been directed, the free and uninterrupted Enjoyment of our Laws, our Liberties, and our Religion, in a secure, permanent, and honorable Peace.

May the Sovereign Ruler of the Universe and Great Disposer of all Events grant to our fervent Prayers, that your Majesty may, in the Possession of Health and Happiness, long continue to reign over these Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a free, loyal, and united People.

James Trotter, High Sheriff.

[Presented by James Trotter, Esq; High Sheriff of the County of Surrey.]

Carlton-House, January 5, 1799.

Office for managing the Affairs of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

By ORDER of the EARL CHOLMONDELEY.

NOTICE is hereby given, that every Creditor of His Royal Highness is to deliver into this Office, within Ten Days from the Date hereof, a Particular, in Writing, containing the Nature and Amount of any Debt, signed by him or her, that may have accrued within the Quarter ending this Day; and all Debts or Demands, of what Nature or Kind soever, which shall not be presented as aforesaid, and within the Time limited as aforesaid, are not, under any Pretence or Colour of Authority whatever, to be paid, satisfied, or discharged, nor any Part thereof, but are barred both at Law and in Equity: And all Bonds, Bills, Notes, or other Securities for Money, given or made in consideration of any Debt or Demand, whereof the Particulars in Writing are not delivered as aforesaid, are to all Intents and Purposes null and void.

See the Act of the 35th of His present Majesty, for settling an Annuity on His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and other Purposes. Cap. 129. Sec. 32.

Tim. Brent, Secretary.

Whitehall, December 27, 1798.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of the 4th Ultimo, Thomas Dade, of Otley, Grocer, going from thence to Leeds, was stopped in the Fields near Spen-Lane, by Three Footpads, (one of which was dressed in Woman's Cloaths) and robbed of 195 l. most of which was in Bank Notes.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Robbery above-
