Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter was received on Sunday the 3d Instant, by Oliver Cromwell, Esq; of Chesbunt-Park, in the County of Hertford, threatening Death to him, to Sir George William Prescott, Bart. and to all those Persons who should concur in the proposed Bill for inclosing sundry Lands and Commons in the Parish of Chesbunt; of which Letter the following is a Copy, viz.

Sir

Feb 27/99

“Whe right these lines to you who are the com-bind of the Parish of Chesbunt in the Defence of our Parrish rights which you unlawfully are about to disinherit us of the Same Resolutions is maid by the aforesaid combinid that if you intend of incloseing Our Commond Commond fields Lammas Meads Marshes &c Whe Resolve before you shall say and the rest of the heads of that bloody and unlawful Act it is finished to have your hearts bloud if you proceede in the aforesaid bloody act Whe like horse-leaches well cry give give untill whe have spilt the bloud of every one that wishes to rob the Inosent unborn it shall not be in your power to say I am safe from the hands of the Enemy for Whe like birds of pray will prively liye in wait to spil the bloud of the aforesaid Charicters whose names and plaices of above are as prutrified fores in our Nostrils Whe declair that thou shalt not say I am safe when thou goest to they bead for beware that thou listest not thine eyes up in the mist of flames and when thou goest out behour if you can that thou returns in safety the bloud of every one that wishes the distruction of this parrish in the aforesaid bloody act Whe are deturmined to have if at the expence of ours Whe cannot but say that there is plenty of room for alterations for Whe cannot see why thas Ruskins and a few more of them should run our Common over while there is no room for another to put any thing on thou hadst made an alteration in the rights of Commoning those instead of being contempabel whould thy name been as Odderriferous Ointment pour’d fourth to us the voice of Us and the maguor part of the parrish is for a regulation of commons “rights is in the follow manner that every one to “turn out on the Commonds in proportion to what “they hold which to be determined by our supe“riours so that every one may have his a lotment “to do as he pleases to keep annerkey from our “parrish so that if he dose not wish to keep any “thing let him or hur let those proportion to “whome they like so that it may be an easement “to them in the poors rates if thou had took this “step thou would then had our hearts and our all “that thy furvise Whe leave it for thy consider“ation wheather thou would like to be forted out “from the land of the living or would like to have “the poors hearts and these all if required for if “thou proceeds to inclose our blood will boil like a “pot if thou goist to regulate it then as aforesaid “then will We come and give our hearts and voices “to it and to you for ever but no inclosure will “whe agree to “Sir you may let Mr. George Prescott and Mr.

 “Russel and the rest of Our Nobility know our “Resolutions for as there was only thy name in the “papers
 “Whe only right to you if agree to Our pro“posals from your well wishers the Combined in “the defence of the rights of the parrish of Ches-

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letter above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
