THE following Address has been presented to His Majesty; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The most humble and dutiful Address of the British Subjects at Madras, and its Dependencies.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT the Moment of conveying to our Country a Pledge of our Affection, We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, impressed with the most respectful and cordial Sentiments of Loyalty, and Attachment to your Royal Person, which no Distance can impair, no Absence diminish, beg Permission to approach your Majesty as the august Head of that Constitution which binds our Hearts and Interests, by indissoluble Ties, to our Native Country.

Looking to that invaluable Constitution for the best Protection of individual Security, civil Liberty, and rational Freedom, we cannot but feel an earnest Interest in the Exertions which have been made to defeat the Attempts of our inveterate Enemies; against such Enemies, and the ruinous Principles they propagate, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are ready with our Lives and Fortunes to support your Majesty's Crown and the Constitution of our Country; and we implore Divine Providence to continue that Influence over your Majesty's Person, Councils, and Arms, which has hitherto enabled your Majesty to contend with Success against the Efforts of our Enemies, to the End that your Majesty may obtain for your People a safe, lasting, and honorable Peace.

Madras, October 4, 1798.

[Presented by Major-General Nixon.]

¶ An Extraordinary Gazette, containing further Accounts of the Successes of the Austrians, will be published in the Course of the Evening.

Whitehall, May 16, 1799.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that Three Anonymous Threatening Letters have been received by the Persons hereafter mentioned, of which the following are Copies:

Gentlemen

If you persist in the plan you have adopted others certainly will follow which will distress many poor families. This is to give you timely notice to discontinue it and if you do not perhaps you may experience a return from a quarter you little expect. Depend on it a honest man has no need to arm himself against his fellow Citizens.

Yours &c.

A Sharmau.

Gentlemen clothers al i hope that you will a warn tak an not send no more cloth to turten for if you do your own ruen will be for we ar de termed to go throo with it as nou we be gon it fore next time that wecom we will set all the misshenery a fiere if ther is ay more sent from fesh ford ar stoke fr we have gote
