

and 11th of June instant, between the Hours of Nine in the Forenoon and Two in the Afternoon each Day, to bring in and deliver at this Office their several Weekly Accounts to Saturday the 8th Instant inclusive; and at the same Time to pass the said Accounts, and pay the Money due thereon.

Edmund James, Farmer of the said Duty.
District No. 11.

East India House, June 5, 1799.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give Notice, that they have appointed Messrs. James Chicheley Hyde and William Marten, Clerks in their Accountant's Office, to act as Agents in the Clearance of Baggage, Wine, Presents, &c. from the Company's Warehouses, under the Court's Authority, subject to such Restrictions and Regulations as the Court trust will prevent any Complaint. The Court have been induced to appoint Company's Servants for conducting this Business in order that they may be accountable to the Court for the Propriety of their Conduct. Passengers and others, who may employ the abovementioned Persons as Agents, are informed, that if in transacting such Business they shall be guilty of any Malpractices by unnecessary Delay or exorbitant Charges, the Court, upon Complaint, will immediately proceed to investigate the same, and afford such Redress as the Nature of the Case may require. The Court think it necessary to observe, that no Person acting as Agent, except those abovementioned, can give a Discharge to the Company for Goods belonging to others, unless legally authorized so to do.

By Order of the said Court,
William Ramsay, Secretary.

Office of Commissioners for the General Purposes of the Income Acts.

Salisbury-Square, June 7, 1799.

THE Board having Reason to believe that some Houses of Agency and Business in Charge of Trusts belonging to Subjects of His Majesty residing out of Great Britain, have omitted to make Returns of the Income of several of their Constituents, from a Misconception of the Acts of the Thirty-ninth of the King. That Residents in Ireland, as well as in other Parts of the World, are not liable to the Tax, do hereby require an immediate Statement of all such Trusts, in order that they may be assessed according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Acts; otherwise the Commissioners will be under the Necessity of levying the Penalties authorized by the same.

By Order,
Sam. Ford, Clerk.

London, May 29, 1799.
