

Sovereign against any Force that could be sent against them.

I have sent off an Express to Lord Nelson at Naples with this Intelligence. The Presence of a Squadron off this Coast and that of Genoa, would prevent the French from carrying off immense Treasures robbed from the various States of Italy.

Head-Quarters, Leghorn, the 28th Messisen, (Messidor,) 7th Year of the French Republic.

DARGOUBET, General of Brigade, Commandant of Leghorn, Pisa, and Lucca, proposes to General De Lavilette, Governor of Leghorn, and to the Chamber of Commerce, to evacuate that City on the following Conditions :

Art. I. The Chamber of Commerce and General De Lavilette shall promise Succour and Protection to all the French Sick, and to those who shall remain in the Hospitals of the City of Leghorn: After their Recovery they shall be conducted to the French Army.

Art. II. General De Lavilette and the Chamber of Commerce shall bind themselves moreover to receive the Garrison of Porto Ferrajo; and the Day after their Arrival to permit them to evacuate the Town, and to afford them Security and Protection till they join the French Army.

Art. III. They shall moreover cause the Trading Companies to afford a just Indemnity and Compensation to the several Individuals, who have been ruined by the Requisitions of Lead and Salt-Petre furnished to the French Army; to which Purpose all the Magazines belonging to the French at Leghorn, and all other Effects belonging to them in Right of Conquest, shall be applied.

General De Lavilette, the Auditor Alliata, conjointly with the Deputies of the Chamber of Commerce, have subscribed the Articles of the above-mentioned Treaty, and will guarantee the Execution of it to the French General Dargoubet, Commandant of Leghorn, Pisa, and Lucca; in Faith of which they have hereunto set their Hands.

DE LAVILETTE, General.

GIOV. ALLIATA, Auditor, President of the Comm.

GIOV. GRACOMO RILLIET, President of the Department of Commerce.

DARGOUBET, French General.

(A true Copy.)

GIOV. ALLIATA, Auditor.

St. James's, August 14, 1799.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Inhabitants of the Borough of Helston, in Cornwall, assembled in our Guildhall, beg Leave unanimously and solemnly to avow before God and the World, our unshaken Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government; and to declare our utter Abhorrence of those Principles of Anarchy and Rebellion instilled by artful and designing Men into the Minds of the Weak and Unguarded.

We feel ourselves called upon to make this Avowal, and to disclaim, (if it may be permitted,) with Indignation, all Knowledge of or Connection with those Secret Societies whose Proceedings have been the Objects of Inquiry of your Majesty's Parliament.

We cannot omit this Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the important Successes of your Allies.

That your Majesty may long reign over a united People is the ardent Prayer of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Helston.
