Whitehall, October 4, 1799.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that between the Night of the 28th and the Morning of the 30th Ulting, the Exchequer-Bill Office in St. Margaret-Street, Westminster, was feloniously broke open by some evil-disposed Person or Persons unknown, and the undermentioned Bank Notes and other Articles were stolen, viz. No. 6923, dated 5th January 1793, 50 l.; No. 8096, dated 23d August 1799, 10 l.; Nos. 342, 343, 344, 345, dated 1st August 1799, 20 l. each; also several other Bank Notes of 10 l. and 20 l. each, the Numbers of which are at present unknown; a Gold enamelled Ring of Frederick the Second of Prussia; a Gold Sardonyx Ring, the Head of Cleopatra; a small plain Gold Seal; a Pair of plain Silver Shoe Buckles; a Pair of Stone Ditto; Two Pair of Stone Knee Buckles, One Pair Round, the other Oval; a Queen Elizabeth's Shilling.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Burglary above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who first broke open and entered the same,) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid upon Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by William James Cooke.

General Post-Office, Sent. 18, 1799.

Notice is hereby given, that Letters addressed to Persons serving with the Army under the Command of Field-Marshal His Royal Highness the Duke of York, will be received at the Ship-Letter Office Twice instead of Once in the Week, viz. on Tuesday and Friday, from Ten in the Morning until Ten o'Clock at Night, and not on Thursday as mentioned in the Advertisement from the Office of the 10th Instant.

And that such Letters will be regularly forwarded in Vessels from Yarmouth to the Helder Point on the same Days as the Mails are sent to Cuxhaven.

An Half Rate of Postage, under the Act of the Thirty-ninth of His present Majesty, of Sixpence each Letter, One Shilling Double, One Shilling and Sixpence Treble, and so on in Proportion, will be demanded upon all Letters addressed to Officers and others, but those directed to Private Soldiers and Sailors will be forwarded for One Penny each single Letter, under the Act of the Thirty-fifth of His present Majesty.

And that Newspapers will also be forwarded at a Rate of Threepence upon each, provided such Paper is sent without Cover, or in Covers open at the Sides.

Two Mails from the Army may be expected to arrive in each Week.

By Command of His Majesty's Postmaster-General,
Francis Freeling, Secretary.
