ther in a bodey & see whats to be don in this case for your work all you can doe will not support you & your famelly your vile oppressors see how they use ye what yoke of bondage you are brought under be not affraid of horse nor staning arms but come-forth with courage and reselution if you give way to those Villins you allways be bound under theise changs wherein your libberty and freedom is intirely lost nothings to be done without you take this step sum may pertend to smoth and calim you for heires our Soupmaker may come with doctrine of fine speecheis as keeping a cleen house and the Wife to give a smile send him to where hee com from and when whe whant him whe will send for him if nothing better can be done than already is Id with every Man to leave his famelly—and let the D—m Heethen doe as they will for whey should whe starve in a land where theirs plenty never the more as a Wellwisher God bleis the King

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and publishing the said Hand-Bill is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And as a further Encouragement a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered (by the Inhabitants of the said Town of Hitchin,) to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Joseph Parsons, Minister.

Edward Waller, Churchwarden.

And the further Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is likewise offered by the Officers and Corps of Hitchin Loyal Volunteers, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid by W. Willhere, Captain, Hitchin Loyal Volunteers.

Whitehall, February 25, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous Threatening Letter, of which the following is a Copy, has been received by the Inhabitants and Occupiers of Lands in White-Parish, in the County of Wilts, viz.

He that finds it open it and read it & set the news all over White-Parish

If all the Farmers in White-Parish Dont sink their Wheat their Barns shall be burn'd and they shall be in the middle of it, it is no use to offer no reward for I have nobody but myself Amen.

And whereas the above Threat (in Part) has been put in Execution by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown, in the wilfully setting Fire on the Evening of Wednesday the 12th Instant to Two Barns, a Cow-House, a Quantity of Hay and Straw, a Fatting Calf, and several other Articles, which were consumed, situate on an Estate the Property of George Yalder Foot, Esq; and in the Occupation of John Holloway, and known by the Name of Hayters Common Barn, and Premises, in the Parish of White-Parish aforesaid;
