

Dominions which have been emphatically termed the brightest Jewel in the British Crown.

[Presented by Colonel Scott, Deputy Chairman, attended by Colonel Roberts, Major Thornton, and Mr. Tatem.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Borough of Cardiff, and of the Contributory Boroughs of Cowbridge, Swansea, Aberavon, Neath, Kenfig, Lougher, and Lantriffent, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that with the most sincere Devotion, we offer up our Prayers and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for having so graciously extended his Mercy to all the Subjects of this Realm in protecting your sacred Person from the wicked Designs of the only treacherous and desperate Assassin, who can possibly be insensible of the Blessings every Briton has enjoyed under your Majesty's Government during a long and glorious Reign; and whilst thus we join in the universal Joy which must pervade every Part of this Kingdom, and indeed every Corner of the Earth, where the Influence of your Majesty's Virtues are felt and acknowledged, we beg Permission likewise, with the greatest Humility, to offer our Congratulations in particular to her most sacred Majesty, and every Branch of the Royal Family, on the wicked Designs of this Assassin having been frustrated by the immediate Interposition of Providence.

[Presented by the Marquis of Bute and Mr. Price.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, in Common-Hall assembled, impressed with an awful Sense of the Danger from which your Majesty has recently been delivered, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to offer our heartfelt Congratulations.

We know not whether to attribute the daring Act which endangered your Majesty's sacred Life to the most wicked of Designs, or to the heaviest of Calamities, but the Defeat of the Attempt can be ascribed only to the protecting Care of that Almighty Power, which has shewn so many signal Instances of a merciful Interposition of its Providence over the People of this Land.

Sensible how dear is our Sovereign to his Subjects, and how interesting to their Welfare is his Life, we pray to God that He will continue it under his Almighty Protection.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

William Bishop, Mayor.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Smith and Lord Ranelagh, Members for Leicester.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of New Woodstock, in the County of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, cannot refrain from approaching your Majesty with our immediate and most hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's being again made the especial Care of Divine Providence by an Escape from an Attempt, atrocious and diabolical beyond Example, upon your Majesty's august and sacred Life.

This our bounden Duty we feel imposed upon us from Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Family—of Attachment to our glorious and unrivalled Constitution in Church and State, which finds in your Majesty an unwearied Protector, and from Considerations of the unspeakable Importance of your Majesty's Life and well-being to the Prosperity of these Kingdoms, and at the present Crisis, to the Welfare of the Whole Civilized World; and that your Majesty's Magnanimity and Fortitude, and all other Virtues, public and private may be long exercised under the Shield and Guidance of the Sovereign Disposer for the Happiness of yourself and august Family and of your People, will, we are persuaded be the fervent Prayer of all your Majesty's grateful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Nineteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Sir Henry Dashwood, Bart. and Charles Moore, Esq.]

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, beg Leave humbly to express our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late desperate and diabolical Attempt which has been made against your sacred Person. We cannot sufficiently describe the Horror and Indignation with which we heard that any one could be found atrocious enough to lift his Arm against a Life so precious to us all, nor our Gratitude to that Providence, whose merciful Interposition in the Protection of your Majesty, has preserved this Country from the grievous Calamity with which it was threatened. And we earnestly Hope that the same Providence, listening to our constant Prayers, may still continue to watch over and preserve your Majesty from every Danger, that he will avert every Blow that may be levelled against your Majesty's Person, either by frantic Violence or deliberate Treachery, and that he will grant to us long to enjoy those numberless Blessings which we derive from your mild and parental Government.

John Colling, Mayor.

Okehampton, 19th May, 1800.

[Presented by R. Bateman Robson.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Freemen, the Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Launceston, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your late Escape from the desperate Attempt of a mad Assassin. A Life so precious to all your Subjects, we are willing to persuade ourselves, no one but a Wretch divested of all Sense and Reason, would endeavour to shorten; and with Gratitude we acknowledge the Interpositions
