

Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ, do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made; and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled, or delivered up, until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

St. James's, May 30, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Penzance, in the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to express the Horror and Indignation we feel at the atrocious and treasonable Attempt lately made against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to congratulate your Majesty and our Country on your Preservation from so great a Danger.

Impressed with a due Sense of the Benefits enjoyed under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and venerating your Majesty's Virtues and paternal Affection for all your Subjects, we acknowledge with Gratitude the Interposition of Providence, and earnestly pray to God long to preserve a Life so justly dear to us.

Penzance, 24th May 1800.

[Presented by Viscount Falmouth, Recorder.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the High Steward, Mayor, Recorder, Bridgemasters, and Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks, impressed with Detestation of the most atrocious Attempt so lately made on your Majesty, bend with humble Gratitude to the Almighty Power, who preserved your most sacred Life, and with exulting Joy, desire to add our sincerest Congratulations to the general Voice of your People.

May the Sensation of that unfeigned, that universal Delight, which pervades your Kingdom, add fresh Vigour, by its enlivening Energy to the Lamp of Life; and may your Majesty long, very long, remain "Our Father, Prince, and Friend."

[Presented by George Vansittart and Charles Dundas Esqrs; Members for the County of Berks.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Capital Burgeses, and Free Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, taking into our most serious Consideration the happy Interposition of Divine Providence in so narrowly preserving your Majesty's Life from the base and wicked Designs of an abandoned Assassin, and looking on the Action with that Indignation and Horror which so atrocious and treasonable an Attempt deserves, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne, there to express every Sentiment of Love and heartfelt Congratulations to your sacred Person, and our Country at large, on your providential Escape from so perilous a Situation.

Bound to your Majesty by every tender Regard which can endear a Sovereign to his People, and by a just and proper Sense of all the Blessings and Comforts we have enjoyed from your Majesty's just and mild Government, and by a high Veneration for those exalted Virtues which ornament your Majesty's Character, and which have always been so illustriously displayed in the Time of Danger, we acknowledge with deep Humility and respectful Gratitude the Hand of Almighty God, and most earnestly entreat Him that he will always continue to bless, preserve, and keep, a Life so truly dear to us.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the antient Borough of Arundel, in Common Hall assembled, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence to offer our cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Attempt made on your Majesty's sacred Person by a daring and traitorous Assassin.

[We are anxious to assure your Majesty of the extreme Horror and Indignation we feel, and with the most unfeigned Sincerity we thank the Divine Providence for his merciful Interposition, whose Protection and Favor it has always been the peculiar Object of your Majesty's Life by your manifold Virtues to cultivate and deserve.

To the same superintending Providence we unite in Prayer that a long and happy Life may be continued to your Majesty, a Life so essential to the Prosperity of these Realms, and conducive to the
