

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Stamford, in the County of Lincoln.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stamford, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Horror and Detestation at the late most wicked Attempt of an Assassin against your sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty, on your Majesty's happy Escape.

Being truly sensible of the great Benefits derived from your just and mild Government, and impressed with Veneration for the Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character; we most warmly congratulate your Majesty on the merciful Interposition of Providence in warding off the dreadful Attempt on your sacred Person, and most earnestly pray to the Almighty that he will long preserve a Life so truly valuable to us.

Given at the Town-Hall of the said Borough, under our Common Seal, the Twenty-fourth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by the Earl of Carysfort.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the most ardent Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, we, the Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, humbly approach the Throne, anxious to express our deep Concern and Horror at the late daring Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations that the protecting Hand of Providence has again interposed to preserve your Majesty in the Moment of imminent Danger, that you may continue a Blessing to your People, and receive additional Proofs of their inviolable and unbounded Loyalty and Attachment, and of the dutiful and affectionate Interest which they take in the Safety and Happiness of your Majesty and of every Branch of your Royal Family.

Permit us, Sire, to express our Hope, that through the Continuance of Divine Protection, every Attempt of your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad against your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, may, like the present, find its only Result in the additional Honor, Safety, and Happiness of your Majesty, and in giving still further Stability to that glorious Constitution which has raised this Country to a Degree of Prosperity unparalleled among the States of the World.

To our Sovereign Lord the KING's Most Excellent and Sacred Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the ancient and loyal Corporation of Tenby, in the County of Pembroke.

Royal and Sacred Sire,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Tenby, in Common-Hall there assembled, astonished and alarmed at the late abominable, traitorous, daring, and desperate Attempt to assassinate your Majesty, even in public, and while surrounded by a Multitude of your Majesty's most loyal and affectionate Subjects, request here most humbly, dutifully, and cordially to congratulate your Majesty on this providential Escape, offering our unfeigned Thanks to the great and good God for this new Instance of Divine Interposition to prolong your Majesty's Days for the special Benefit of your Empire; and, with all Reverence, hoping that this gracious Favour conferred on us by Omnipotence is a kind Testimony that your People are not yet deemed so unworthy as to be resigned by the benevolent Father of all Mankind to the infernal Malice and diabolical Enmity of secret Traitors at Home, and of implacable Enemies Abroad. May all your Majesty's Subjects both here and elsewhere, so righteously conduct themselves as to induce our Almighty Creator to protect and preserve your Majesty's Life and Health during many future Years, not only for the particular Welfare of your Subjects, but for the general Good of Christendom; and not only for the Conservation of the British Constitution in Church and State, but to uphold Laws human and divine, and social Order throughout the World, endangered as they even now are by innumerable profligate and abandoned Miscreants prevalent for the present over extensive Regions too near to the Britannias, and almost solely controuled through your Majesty's Exertions and Auspices; to support which, and to defend your Majesty's Person and Government from all Foës, both Foreign and Domestic, we solemnly assure your Majesty that we, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects of this Borough of Tenby will ever readily contribute, at the Hazard and Expence of our Lives and Fortunes; and sincerely hope and believe that an Union of all the British Islands will considerably increase the Power requisite effectually to guard both Prince and People, and promote the common Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of our said Corporation of Tenby this Twenty-third Day of May, in the Year of Christ One thousand eight hundred.
