Signed at the Request of the said Inhabitants, met in pursuance of public Notice, at the Town-Hall in Dudley, this Twenty-second Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

Joseph Wainwright, Chairman.

[Presented by Viscount Dudley and Ward.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the ancient Society of Gray's-Inn, in Behalf of ourselves and the other Members thereof, most humbly beg Leave to join our heartfelt Congratulations with those of all your faithful Subjects upon your providential Escape from the wicked and treasonable Attack that has been lately made upon the Life of your sacred Majesty.

When we reflect upon the Magnanimity manifested by your Majesty on that trying Occasion, upon your Majesty's religious and moral Virtues, upon your firm Adherence to those Laws, the Study of which it is our peculiar Duty to cultivate, upon your Majesty's unremitting Solitude for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Subjects, we are at a Loss for Language to express our Abhorrence and Indignation at so foul and atrocious an Attempt.

We take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to our most excellent Constitution, and to your Majesty's sacred Person, and that we shall always be ready to the utmost of our Power to maintain and defend them.

[Presented by Robert Barton, Treasurer, attended by John Lloyd, King's Councillor, Andrew Hadleston, William Paul, Thomas Morgan, H. C. Selby, Esq; and Dr. Fisher]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of your Borough and Parish of Barnstaple, in the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late most wicked and desperate Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to offer our humble, but anxious Wishes, for the long Preservation of a Life so justly dear to us and to our Country.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough and Parish at the Guildhall, the Twenty-second Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

To the KING.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Principal and Professors of the University of Edinburgh, humbly approach your Throne, with our heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late atrocious Attempt on your sacred Life.

ing in the public Happiness which the Empire derives from your Reign, we reflect on that Attempt with Astonishment and Horror; and, while we rejoice in your Majesty's Deliverance, our Prayers ascend to God, that he may long preserve a Sovereign so justly dear to his People.

Signed in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Senatus Academicus of the University of Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, 23d May, 1800.

George Baird, Principal.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, in Common-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne with Expressions of the most respectful Attachment to your Person and Government.

Sensible of the Blessings, which by the Favor of Heaven, we have long enjoyed, under the Influence of your Majesty's Care, we lament the late atrocious Attempt to deprive us of them, in the Life of our beloved Monarch.

Permit us, Royal Sire, to offer to your Majesty, our most heartfelt Congratulations upon this Instance of Divine Protection, and at the same Time to assure your Majesty, it will be our constant Prayer to Almighty God, long to preserve to us a Life so justly dear.

Allow us, Sire, to renew our dutiful Professions of Loyalty and Attachment to your sacred Person and Family.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-third Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Rutland.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Litchfield and Coventry.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, the Dean and Chapter and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Litchfield and Coventry, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your providential Deliverance from the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's invaluable Life.

The Consciousness of Rectitude of Conduct at all Times, and of an exemplary Discharge of every Duty must support your Majesty's Feelings under every trying Event, and uphold that real Fortitude of Mind, which your Majesty has always so uniformly, and so eminently manifested.

We are, with the Rest of our Fellow-Subjects, truly thankful, that the good Providence of God hath again protected your Majesty in the Time of Danger; and we fervently pray that he may con-
