

tinue his Protection to your sacred Person, and thereby continue to us the Enjoyment of all those Advantages, Ecclesiastical and Civil, which we derive at present so abundantly from your Majesty's just, but mild and paternal Government.

[Presented by the Bishop of Litchfield.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Sentiments of the warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

With heartfelt Satisfaction we congratulate your Majesty on your happy-Escape from the late diabolical Attempt to assassinate your Royal Person.

We feel the utmost Indignation that a King, so worthy to be beloved by all his Subjects, should have in his Dominions a single Individual capable of so detestable an Action. We join in the most grateful Acknowledgments to Almighty God, the Ruler of the Universe, for his great Goodness in averting the Arm of the Assassin, and so evidently protecting your Majesty in the Moment of Danger.

That your Majesty's inestimable Life may be long preserved; that your Councils may be wisely directed, and your Reign prosperous and glorious is the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Paisley.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,
Robert Barclay, Eldest Magistrate.

Paisley, 21st May, 1800.

[Presented by Mr. Macdowall Lord Lieutenant of Renfrewshire.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Steward, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, in the County of Kent, in Court Burghmote assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, and Common Councillors of the Corporation of Gravesend and Milton, humbly approach the Throne, under Impressions of the deepest Horror and Indignation at the late foul and traitorous Attempt upon your Majesty's most valuable Life; and of boundless Gratitude to Divine Providence, through whose protecting Care the base Design has been frustrated.

Fully sensible of the important Blessings resulting from your Majesty's unceasing Solitude for our Welfare, it has been with infinite Satisfaction we have witnessed the genuine Feelings of ardent Loyalty so universally manifested on this Occasion; Feelings which your Majesty's transcendent Virtues naturally produce, and which, through a lengthened Reign of increasing Prosperity, we fervently hope to find cherished and preserved in the Breasts of an affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-third Day of May, One thousand eight hundred, and signed by Order of Court.

Evans and Son, Town-Clerks.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean, and Chapter of Winchester, together with the Warden, Masters, and Fellows of the College near that Place.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg leave to approach your Majesty with our Assurances of the Horror and Indignation with which we are impressed at the atrocious and traitorous Attempt lately made upon your Majesty's valuable Life, and our sincere and heartfelt Gratitude to Almighty God for the providential Protection he hath afforded at once to your Majesty, to your august Family, and to all your Subjects, by preserving your Majesty from this unforeseen and imminent Danger.

We assure your Majesty, that as the Experience of every Year contributes to strengthen our Conviction of the great Blessings we derive from the Continuance of your Majesty's Reign, so our Feelings become ever more deeply interested on every Occasion in which the Safety and Happiness of your Majesty is concerned.

Persuaded as we are, that our Liberties, our Laws, and our Religion, with all the private Blessings we enjoy, are safe and entire so long as they have the Benefit of your Majesty's fatherly Protection, just Dispensations, and pious Example, we have no Wish more sincere, no Hope more ardent, than those which we express in our daily Prayers to the Almighty, that he will lengthen the Days and prosper the Designs of your Majesty, which are always directed to the Glory and Happiness of your People.

[Presented by the Bishop of Winton.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Hastings, beg Leave to express our utmost Abhorrence of the late daring Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person, and to present our sincere Congratulations for your Majesty's providential Deliverance.

Deeply impressed with a true Sense of the inestimable Value and Importance of your Majesty's Life to the Happiness and Prosperity of these Kingdoms, we, in common with our fellow Subjects, join in Expressions of Joy and Gratitude to the Almighty, for having graciously interposed to frustrate the wicked Design of a traitorous Assassin: and we most fervently pray that your Majesty may live long to reign over a free, happy, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-second Day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred.

[Presented by the Mayor, attended by Mr. Vansittart and Mr. Sturges, Members for the Borough.]