

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants, Householders, of the United Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, feel ourselves invincibly called upon by the desperate and traitorous Attempt which has been lately made on your Majesty's sacred Life, to renew the Assurances of our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

The Bounty of Providence so often and so largely experienced by this Country, has been in nothing more strikingly displayed than in those repeated Instances in which your Majesty has been rescued from various impending Evils, and a Prolongation of your Majesty's Reign vouchsafed to the Wishes and Prayers of your faithful Subjects.

May your Majesty's valuable Life be long spared to us, and may every Effort of your Enemies serve only to illustrate more clearly the gracious Protection which Providence extends over you, to prove on what firm Foundations your Majesty's Throne is established, and to animate the Gratitude and quicken the Affection of your free, loyal, and devoted People.

[Presented by William Wilberforce, Esq; and Viscount Belgrave.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Folkestone in Common-Hall assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne to express the Horror and Indignation we feel at the late daring and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Person, and our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty and our Country for your Preservation from so imminent a Danger.

Highly sensible of your Majesty's Care and Affection for your People which we have ever experienced, and impressed with a due Sense of the Benefits derived under your just and mild Government, and feeling a Veneration for those transcendent Virtues which are always so most eminently displayed in the Hour of Trial, we most gratefully acknowledge the Interposition of Divine Providence; and earnestly pray to God that he will be pleased long to continue us the same Blessings, and to preserve to us a Life so justly dear.

[Presented by the Earl of Radnor.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Councilmen, and Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, request Permission to address your Majesty on the Subject of the Late most daring and atrocious Attempt against your sacred Person; to express our utter Abhorrence of the nefarious Action, and our Wonder that so depraved a Being as he who attempted the dreadful Deed should exist in a Country where, from your Majesty's paternal Regard for your People, and the Nature of our Constitution, we have, under the Protection of Divine Providence, derived the most inestimable Blessings.

To express our Feelings on the late Occasion is morally impossible. To dwell on the Subject is painful in the highest Degree, no Wonder therefore that we eagerly advert to the signal Instance of that providential Goodness which has preserved your Majesty to protect and defend (we trust for many Years) a grateful and loyal People; we have often expressed to your Majesty our ready and cheerful Willingness to devote ourselves to the Service and Protection of your Majesty's Person, your Royal Family, and your Government.

It is with an heartfelt and animated Satisfaction we repeat our Devotion to your Majesty, and we do most fervently entreat that Providence which hath so wonderfully preserved your sacred Life, to continue its Divine Protection to your Majesty, and grant that you may long reign with Glory over a free and happy People.

[Presented by John Blake, Esq; Mayor, attended by George Burr, Esq; Deputy Recorder; Sir William Bishop, Knt., Thomas Argles, Esq; Justices; Mr. John King, Mr. Flint Stacey, Mr. Edward Argles, Jurats; Mr George Bishop, Chamberlain; Major-General Delaney, and Matthew Bloxham, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town Corporate of Saffron Walden, in the County of Essex, beg Leave to offer our most hearty Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Late providential Escape from the Attack on your Majesty's Life; and we entreat your Majesty to be assured that we view with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence so horrible and atrocious an Act.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's benign Disposition, and the Mildness of your Government, we return our sincerest Thanks to the Almighty Power for his divine Interference, in the Preservation of a Life so inestimable to ourselves and all your Majesty's Subjects, and humbly implore that he will graciously vouchsafe long to preserve and protect your Majesty's Life and Person.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Saffron Walden, this Twenty-third Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

[Presented by Lord Braybrooke, Recorder of the said Town Corporate.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Maidstone, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, to express our high Indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person, and our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty and our Country on your happy Preservation from so great a Danger.

Attached to your Majesty by every Sentiment which can most endear a Sovereign to his People, by the long Experience of your Majesty's paternal Af-
