

Hand of Treason to rise against the Life of a Sovereign, whose Throne is guarded by the universal Love, Veneration, and Loyalty of his People.

With these Sentiments, while we feel Abhorrence at the flagitious Attempt, we pray for your Majesty's Safety and Welfare; and judging from the Past, we preface, with pleasing Anticipation, the Continuation of that large Portion of human Happiness, which under Divine Providence and your benign Influence, our unrivalled Constitution has hitherto diffused through every Part of the British Dominions.

By appointment of the Society, at a general Meeting held at Edinburgh on the Twenty-sixth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred.

Hugh Warrender, Deputy Keeper.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING.

The humble Address of the Royal College of Physicians in Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, your College of Physicians in Edinburgh, deeply sensible of the Blessings which we enjoy under your paternal Government, beg Leave to express our Horror at the late desperate Attempt of a Traitor on your sacred Life, and our heart-felt Joy, and our Thankfulness to God, for your Preservation from that great Danger.

We earnestly pray that his good Providence may continue to guard you from all Dangers, and long preserve you the Sovereign and the Father of your People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Royal College, James Gregory, P.

Hall of the Royal College of Physicians, 21. May, 1800.

[Presented by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heart-felt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the atrocious Attempt lately made on your Majesty's sacred Person.

We contemplate with the deepest Sorrow that a Human Being exists in your Majesty's Dominions capable of so horrid an Act of Treason. We beg your Majesty will be assured our vigilant and active Endeavours as Magistrates and faithful Subjects, will at all Times be exerted to guard and protect your sacred Person, and to support our excellent Constitution.

May the Almighty grant to your Majesty a long Continuance of a Life so truly dear to us, the Comfort and Happiness of which we feel it our indispensable Duty to promote by a constant Attention to the due Administration of those Laws with the execution of which we are entrusted for the Preservation of Peace and good Order, and the Encouragement of Religion and Virtue, of which your Majesty is so bright an Example.

[Presented by Mr. Mainwaring, the Chairman of the Sessions.]

St. James's, May 30, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, the Common-Council of the Royal Borough of Axbridge, in the County of Somerset.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to evidence our deep Concern that in any Human Mind should have been wrought a Design so diabolical and atrocious as that lately put in Execution against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to express our Horror and Indignation at the treasonable Attempt, and also to express our heart-felt Congratulations to your Majesty, your Royal Consort, and dutiful Offspring, as also to the Country at large at your providential Escape therefrom.

Attached to your Majesty, as in Duty bound to preserve Fidelity to so invaluable a Sovereign, we thankfully acknowledge the merciful Interference of Divine Providence so openly shown in the Preservation of your Majesty, and make it our incessant Prayer to the Supreme Being that He will long, very long, protect and preserve a Life so replete of good Example, and so justly dear to us.

Given under the Common Seal in the Council Chamber of said Borough, the Twenty-third Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

[Transmitted by the Mayor of Axbridge.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancashire, assure your Majesty, that the paternal Care extended by your Majesty to all Ranks and Degrees of your Subjects awakens on every Occasion of Danger to your sacred Person the most lively and affectionate Sensations; and although your Royal Virtues secure you from the parricidal Attempts even of the most abandoned and desperate, yet the Hazard to which your high Pre-eminence has recently exposed you, by raising the Arm of a Being, impotent to appreciate the Evils resulting from the Deed either to himself, these Realms, or civilized Mankind; against his Sovereign's Life, calls upon us to thank Almighty God that he has thus vindicated his Divine Providence in shielding you from the fatal Blow, and to mingle our Prayers with the Rest of the Nation for the Preservation of a Life so justly dear and invaluable to us.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-third Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred.

Robert Morris, Mayor.

[Transmitted by John Cotes, Esq; M. P.]