

ledge, with all Humility and Gratitude, the Interposition of Divine Providence so signally exerted on this Occasion, and offer up our most fervent Prayers that the same Providence would continue to provide and watch over a Life so dear to the Country.

Council Chamber, Ruthin,
May 20, 1800.

[Presented by Thomas Jones, Esq; M. P.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave with great Sincerity to congratulate your Majesty upon the late Deliverance which it hath pleased Almighty God to afford you from the Attack of an Assassin.

Conscious of the Happiness which we and all your Majesty's Subjects enjoy under your mild and paternal Government, we ardently pray that it may please the Almighty to preserve you from all your Enemies as well domestic as foreign, and long to continue your Majesty's Reign over a loyal and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Twenty-second Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand eight hundred.

Benjamin Gott, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Capital Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Tamworth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to express our Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person; and also to express our heartfelt Congratulations to your Majesty and the Country, at your providential Escape therefrom. Attached to your Majesty by every Consideration which can endear a Sovereign to his People, by a Sense of the Benefits derived from your just and mild Government, by a Veneration and Esteem for the Virtues which adorn your Majesty's Character, we thankfully acknowledge the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence so openly manifested in the Preservation of your Majesty; and we make it our Prayer to Almighty God that he will long continue to watch over and preserve a Life so justly dear to us.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of Portsmouth, and its Vicinity, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Expressions of our unfeigned Joy at the providential Escape your Majesty has experienced from the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Sensible, as we are, of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Government, and deeply impressed with a Sense of the great Importance attached to your continuing long to reign over us, we offer up to the Almighty our heartfelt Prayers that he will be pleased long to protect and preserve in Health and Prosperity the Life of a King endeared to his People by every Virtue that can adorn a Sovereign.

Elias Arnaud, Chairman.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chief Officers and other Inhabitants of your Ancient Borough of Lewes, beg Leave humbly to offer our most heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the imminent Danger to which your sacred Person has lately been exposed.

Whilst we feel, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, the numerous Blessings enjoyed under your benign Reign; and whilst we contemplate the many public and private Virtues universally acknowledged and admired in your Majesty, we cannot, in Terms of sufficient Energy, express our Astonishment and Horror at the late atrocious Attempt upon your sacred Life.

That the same Almighty Providence which has shielded your Majesty from the past, may protect you from every future Danger; and that a Life so important to the Happiness of your Subjects may be long continued, is our most earnest and fervent Prayer.

Signed at the Request and in the Name of the Meeting,

W. Lee and John Baker, Chief Officers of the Borough of Lewes.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of Richmond, in the County of York, assembled in the Common-Hall, the Twenty-eighth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Richmond, in the County of York, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the Assurances of our sincere and heartfelt Joy at your Majesty's most happy Preservation from the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Person and truly invaluable Life.

At the same Time that we congratulate your Majesty, our fellow Subjects and ourselves, on the providential Disappointment of so wicked and so desperate a Design, we cannot forbear to testify the keen Regret we feel at the imminent Danger to which our most gracious Sovereign has been exposed, and the Abhorrence with which we contemplate the wild and malignant Spirit in which so dreadful a Purpose was conceived.
