

some Years past have been so assiduously inculcated upon the public Mind; and in this Persuasion we assure your Majesty we should esteem ourselves unworthy of the Constitution and Sovereign under which we are peculiarly blessed, were we not determined to the best of our Ability to stem this destructive Torrent of Depravity.

May the guardian Care of Heaven continue to shield our exemplary and beloved Sovereign from the Violence of domestic as well as of foreign Enemies: may your Majesty and your illustrious Family, long enjoy in Security and Honor those earthly Comforts which you so widely diffuse; and at length may you reap those unfading Rewards, the Prospect of which has proved your constant Support under all your Difficulties and Trials.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble Address of the French and Dutch Churches, established by King Edward the Sixth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Ministers, Elders, and Deacons of the French and Dutch London Churches, established by King Edward the Sixth, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person with the most hearty Congratulations on the happy Preservation of your Majesty's most valuable Life, when lately exposed to the most imminent Danger.

Though our Bosoms were filled with Horror when contemplating this most atrocious Attempt, yet when we found that neither your Majesty's sacred Person was in any Manner hurt, nor any melancholy Consequences produced on your Royal Consort, or any of the Branches of your august Family, we heartily rejoiced and offered up our most fervent Thanksgivings to the Omnipotent Ruler of the Universe.

May the God of all Mercies continue to protect your Majesty's sacred Person; may Health, long Life, and Prosperity, be your Majesty's Portion; may the choicest Blessings attend your Royal Family and Government, and may our Churches (the eldest Foreign Protestant in this Kingdom) continue to enjoy your Majesty's most powerful and gracious Protection.

[Presented by the Rev. C. Schwiers, D. D. attended by the Rev. L. de la Chaumette, the Rev. L. Shercier, John Devanes, Esq; John Siffkin, Esq; John Spencer Taylor, Esq.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address and Congratulation of your Majesty's Servants and most faithful loyal Subjects, the Company of Drury-Lane Theatre.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal, faithful, and devoted Subjects, the Company of Drury-Lane Theatre, beg Leave most humbly to convey to your Majesty all the Sentiments of most sincere and dutiful Congratulation which have animated the Hearts of all your People upon your Majesty's late happy and providential Escape from the wicked Attempt of a most unnatural Assassin.

Honoured, as we are, with the proud Distinction of the Character and Designation of "your Majesty's Servants," our Bosoms are enlivened by a Sentiment of affectionate Duty that gives increased Effect to our general Gratitude as Subjects.

Many of us were witnesses to this desperate Attempt; and saw with Admiration and Reverence, that, what excited in us Fear and Horror, drew forth from your Majesty Expressions only of the most dignified Fortitude.

Accept, Sir, our humble but ardent Wishes for your Majesty's long Life, Prosperity, and Glory.

[Presented by the Lord Chamberlain.]

Most Gracious Sovereign;

THE Patentees and Performers of Covent-Garden Theatre humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with their earnest Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late Attack on your sacred Person, gratefully sensible of the Protection they have received, and ardently joining with all their Fellow-Subjects in the most cordial Hopes that the British Empire may long continue to enjoy the Happiness and Security which have so eminently distinguished your Majesty's paternal Government.

[Presented by the Lord Chamberlain.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council, of the City of Perth, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty's Throne, that we may express our Horror and Detestation of the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your sacred Person, and our most unfeigned Joy at your Majesty's Escape from so imminent Danger.

When we reflect upon the many Virtues that so conspicuously adorn your Majesty's Character, and the great Benefits derived from your just and mild Government, we feel unable to express our Indignation at the base Attempt. With the most heartfelt Satisfaction do we congratulate your Majesty upon the signal Interposition of Divine Providence, manifested in your Preservation; and we make it our earnest Prayer to Almighty God that He will long continue to preserve your Majesty's Life, a Life so justly dear to us, and upon which the Happiness of all your Subjects in so eminent a Degree depends.

Signed in Presence of the Magistrates and Council at Perth, this faithful and affectionate Tribute of our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Thomas Black, Provost.
