

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, convened by the Sheriff, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with sincere Declarations of unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to offer our heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the daring and horrid Attack of an Assassin.

With the deepest Sense of Gratitude to the Almighty we trace in our Annals, as a Nation, many and Signal Instances of his Divine Interposition. On this memorable day our Ancestors were delivered from the Miseries of Republican Anarchy, and the Tyranny of an Usurper, by the Restoration of their lawful Sovereign; and we, their Descendants, now meet to express our Gratitude to the same gracious Power for preserving to us a Sovereign, whose Life has been devoted to a conscientious Discharge of all the Duties of the Monarchy, and to an unremitting Attention to the Welfare of his People.

Signed at the Request, and on the Behalf of the Meeting, the Twenty-ninth Day of May one thousand eight hundred, by George Adam Aikew, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Presented by Mr. Grey.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cornwall, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the imminent Danger to which your Majesty's Life has lately been exposed.

We fully participate in those Feelings which this awful Event has excited in the Breast of every loyal Subject, and with Gratitude we acknowledge the merciful Interposition of the Divine Being in preserving to these Realms a Sovereign who has ever made our Happiness the Rule of his Conduct, and whose whole Life has afforded to his Subjects an Example of every Virtue.

Truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy, we avail ourselves of this Opportunity to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of all traitorous Designs against your Majesty's Person and Government; and with Hearts full of Loyalty we cease not to pray the Almighty for the long Preservation of your Majesty's life so justly dear to your People.

Signed in Behalf of the County.

Dated 6th June, 1800.

Mathew Michel, Sheriff.

[Presented by Mathew Michel and Earl of Mount Edgcombe.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, desire to offer to your Majesty, our warmest and dutiful Congratulations on your Providential Escape from the execrable Attempt lately made on your Royal Person.

We acknowledge with humble Thankfulness the Goodness of Almighty God who has been pleased to prolong a Life so justly endeared to us by the Sense which we deeply feel of our Happiness under your Majesty's mild and just Government, and of the Benevolence and Virtues that have placed your Throne in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects.

Our excellent Constitution points out to us the Duties which we owe for the Protection of our Sovereign, whom we will defend with our Lives, but our Sentiments of personal Affection, Respect, and Gratitude encrease those Obligations, and the anxious Fervour of our Prayers for your Majesty's Security and Happiness. M. D. Mansel, Sheriff.

[Presented by M. D. Mansel, High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Northampton, truly anxious at all Times to acknowledge the Mercies of Divine Providence, and to testify our unfeigned and firm Attachment to your Majesty's Person, and to the Constitution of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and affectionate Congratulations on your providential Escape from the Danger which lately threatened your Majesty's most sacred Life.

We feel too sensibly the Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, and we reverence too sincerely your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and the paternal Care you have ever manifested for your People's Welfare, not to offer up our unceasing Prayers to Almighty God to watch over and preserve through a long Series of Years a Life so justly dear to your illustrious Family and to the Nation at large.

Edward Bouverie, Sheriff, at the Request, and in the Name of the County.

[Presented by Edward Bouverie, Esq; Sheriff, Earl Pomfret, and Lord Lilford.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Subjects of your County of Derby, beg Leave to approach your Throne, (not only with Reverence and Duty to your Royal Dignity but with affectionate Attachment to your Person and private Virtues) to express their full Participation of the general Horror and Alarm from the late execrable Attempt upon your sacred Life, and their heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Preservation.

May the Arm of the Almighty, thus ever guard you; and may that highly valuable Life be long continued the revered Example and best Incitement to your People in the Exercise of those Duties which Religion demands, which the Laws prescribe, and which your Sovereignty so conspicuously protects.

Signed by Order and in the Name of the County Meeting holden at the County-Hall, in Derby, the Fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred. Robert Wilnot, Chairman.

[Presented by the Sheriff, Mr. Horton, Lord G. H. Cavendish, E. M. Mundy.]