

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, most humbly approach your Majesty's Throne with our heartfelt Expressions of Abhorrence at the late most execrable Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Life, with warmest Congratulations on the Failure of so diabolical a Treason, and the most dutiful Professions of loyal Attachment to your Person.

We have no Language to express our Astonishment that even amongst the Millions over whom your Majesty Reigns, and in such evil Times, there should yet one Heart be found so vile as to plan, or one Arm so nerved as to attempt to execute the black Design of Violence against the Person of a Monarch even more beloved by a grateful People than the most illustrious of his Predecessors.

We acknowledge the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, and, though in the contagious Pestilence of Principles which are alike subversive of all true Religion and good Government, the Machinations of Treason may work amongst a desperate and profligate few, we confess that we owe it to your Majesty's Firmness and Wisdom that this Country has presented an impregnable Barrier against the detested Principles of Anarchy; and that we preserve our Liberties, our Laws, our social Blessings, and domestic Comforts inviolate amidst the awful Scene of Bloodshed and Desolation with which neighbouring Nations are overrun.

More especially do we entreat your Majesty to accept the Tribute of our highest Admiration as well as our warmest Gratitude for the Support which the Cause of our holy Religion, that great Cement of social Order, has received in your Majesty's most pious and virtuous Example.

Under the deepest Sense therefore of Duty and Attachment we earnestly implore the Almighty Governor of the Universe, (and our Hope derives Strength and Confidence from your Majesty's Virtues,) that it will please Him to guard and preserve, by his especial Providence, a Life so inestimably dear and precious to the Subjects of these Realms.

Signed at the unanimous Desire of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, in a General Meeting assembled at Stow-Market, the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred, by William Beaumaurice Rysh, High Sheriff.

Thellusson, Alexander Adair, Reverend John Cook, Dudley North, Roger Pettwood, John Vernon, Esqrs. Reverend James Moore, Reverend Charles Estcourt, Robert Cooper, and John Henniker Major, Esqrs.*]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

VIEWING with indignant Horror the late atrocious Outrage against the Life of our illustrious King, we, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Lancaster, most unfeignedly congratulate your Majesty, your beloved Family, and the Kingdom at large, on that signal Instance of Divine Goodness which shielded from Injury your sacred Person, and inspired so much Firmness and Magnanimity in the Moment of Danger.

Exalted, as your majesty is, in the Practice of cardinal Virtues, which, while they add Lustre to a Crown, furnish the brightest Examples in private Life; and distinguished, as your Reign uniformly has been, by your anxious Attention to the Welfare and Happiness of your People, we cannot on this Occasion withhold the purest Dictates of our Hearts, in declaring the unalterable Veneration we feel for your Person and Government.

In humble Thankfulness for Benefits so inestimable may we earnestly endeavor to merit their Continuance; and may the gracious Providence of God long preserve to your Majesty the Blessings of uninterrupted Health and Safety for the continued Prosperity of these Realms.

James Ackers, Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Corporation, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Inhabitants of Louth in the County of Lincoln, firmly attached to your Crown and Government, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the most solemn Assurances, that the recent atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your sacred Person has excited in us the greatest Horror and Indignation, and to present our humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from Alarm, and imminent Danger. We acknowledge with the warmest Thankfulness the Interposition of a merciful Providence in diverting the Arm of the Assassin, and in our daily Supplications fervently intreat the Almighty Disposer of Events to defend your Majesty from the malicious Devices of your Enemies, to confer upon your Majesty every personal, domestic, and national Blessing, and long to continue your Majesty the Dispenser of Happiness to your Subjects; of the dearest Interests of Europe, the Guardian and Protector, and of Virtue, Literature, and Religion, the Friend, the Patron, and the Example.

[Presented by Robert Vyner, Esq; and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants (assembled at a public Meeting) of the County of Monmouth.

PERMIT us, most gracious Sovereign, to offer our sincere and cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and nefarious Attempt of an Assassin, and dutifully to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of so atrocious a Crime.
