

tempts of domestic Treason, which last call aloud for the severest Punishment.

Signed and sealed with the Seal of the said Burgh, in the Name and Presence, and by Appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the said Burgh, at Fortrose, the Ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred, by me, Eldest Baillie, in Absence of the Provost,

Andrew Millar, Baillie.

[Transmitted by A. Millar, Esq.]

The humble Address of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Stockton upon Tees, and of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of that Place and Neighbourhood.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the Borough of Stockton upon Tees, and the Gentlemen, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of that Place and Neighbourhood, actuated by those Principles of Duty and Affection for your Majesty's Person which are so universally felt and acknowledged, present our humble but sincere Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the daring Attempts of a private Assassin.

In common with all your Majesty's Subjects we experience the Blessings of your paternal Care; and beseech Him by whom Kings reign to prolong those Blessings to us, by preserving your Majesty's valuable Life from the desperate Assaults of open Violence, or the no less treasonable and insidious Attacks of private Conspiracy.

[Transmitted by Rowland Burdon, Esq.]

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to express our Horror and Indignation at the late atrocious and diabolical Attack upon your Majesty's sacred Person, and amidst the general Acclamations of a free and grateful People, to present our most heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's happy Escape from so alarming and imminent a Danger.

We confess ourselves unalterably attached to your Royal Person, and acknowledge with the warmest Gratitude the Interposition of Divine Providence in your Majesty's Protection; and we offer up our fervent Prayers, that the same Providence may continue to watch over a Life so invaluable to the Kingdom of Great Britain.

Given under the common Seal of the Corporation of New Romney, this Second Day of June One thousand eight hundred.

[Transmitted by Sir Edward Dering, Bart.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, now labouring under temporary Misfortunes, though not less unmindful of our permanent Attachment for the Safety of your Royal Person, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy and providential Escape which your Majesty has so recently experienced from a vile Assassin; and we beg Leave to observe, that we hold in utter Detestation and Abhorrence the Wretch whose Hands was uplifted against your Majesty's most sacred Person with such a diabolical Intent; and may your Majesty live long to remain our Sovereign under your ever auspicious Reign, and under the glorious and happy Constitution, which no other Nation can so happily boast of, is the general Wish of your faithful and most loyal Subjects, and particularly the poor unfortunate Debtors, now confined in your Majesty's Gaol at Maidstone in the County of Kent, whose Attachment towards the Welfare, Protection, and Preservation of your Majesty's benign Person cannot be rivalled throughout the Universe.

Dated at Maidstone aforesaid, this Twenty-ninth Day of May One thousand eight hundred.

[Transmitted by Lord Romney.]

Westminster, June 20, 1800.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of the Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money to be raised by a Lottery.

An Act for the better ascertaining and collecting the Duties granted by several Acts passed in the last Session of Parliament relating to the Duties on Income, and to explain and amend the said Acts.

An Act for granting a Bounty on the Importation of Rye until the Fifteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred.

An Act to permit Blubber from the Greenland Fishery and Davis's Streights to be boiled into Oil after the Arrival of the Ships from the Fishery, and for charging the Duty thereon; for altering the Convoy Duty now payable on the Importation of Opium; for repealing the Duties on the Importation of Oil of Turpentine, and charging other Duties in lieu thereof; for exempting Burr Stones and Stones used for the Purpose of paving, or the making or mending of Roads from the Duties charged thereon when carried Coastwise; for obliging Masters of Ships laden with Tobacco to remove the same from their Moorings when their Cargoes are discharged; and for extending Bonds given on licensing Ships, Vessels, or Boats to all Cases wherein Ships, Vessels, or Boats may be liable to Forfeiture.

An Act for more effectually charging public Accountants with the Payment of Interest; for allowing Interest to them in certain Cases; and for compelling the Payment of Balances due from them.