

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 21, to Tuesday June 24, 1800.

St. James's, June 18, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Roman Catholics of the City of Kilkenny.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Roman Catholics of the City of Kilkenny, beg Leave with the most lively Satisfaction, to lay before your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your recent and providential Escape from the daring and impious Violence of a desperate Assassin.

We should be dead to every generous and loyal Sentiment were we not penetrated with a Sense of the deepest Horror at any Attempt against the invaluable Life of a revered and beloved Sovereign, the Blessings of whose auspicious Reign and paternal Protection are unalterably imprinted on our Minds, and whose exalted Virtues and benevolent Solicitude for the Interests of all his Subjects must ever be inadequately expressed even in the warmest Acknowledgments of a grateful and affectionate People.

We shall unceasingly pour forth to the Omnipotent Disposer of all Events our most fervent Prayers to continue to your Majesty that Divine Protection so especially promised by the Almighty to his Representatives on Earth, the late and signal Interference of which, on Behalf the Subjects of these Kingdoms, in the Preservation of your Majesty, must ever claim the strongest Effusions of our Thanksgiving and Gratitude.

On this Day, sacred to the Birth of our illustrious Sovereign, the Commemoration of which, we trust in Heaven, will be the Blessing of many future Years, allow us to renew our most sincere Professions of inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

*John Shearman, Chairman.
William Raican, Secretary.*

Kilkenny, June 4, 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Term Grand Jury of the County of Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Foreman, and Grand Jury of the County of Dublin, at Easter Term assembled, humbly present to your Majesty our most sincere and earnest Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late atrocious and wicked Attempt on your sacred Person.

Whilst we reflect on the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign, and the repeated Instances of your Majesty's unremitting Attention and Solicitude for the true Interests and Happiness of all your Subjects, with the greater Detestation and Horror do we view the Enormity of this most flagitious Attack on the Life of the best of Sovereigns; we humbly entreat your Majesty to receive these our Assurances of inviolable Loyalty, and of zealous and firm Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government, and our Determination to guard and defend with our Lives and Properties your Majesty's most sacred Person against the Attempts of foreign Enemies and domestic Traitors; and we shall offer up, in Thanksgiving to Almighty God, our most fervent Prayers for this Interposition of his Divine Providence in the Protection and Preservation of your Majesty's Life, on which not only the Liberties and Happiness of your own faithful Subjects, but those of all Europe, at this Time most materially depend.

St. James's, June 18, 1800.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Flint,

