

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 24, to Saturday June 28, 1800.

St. James's, June 25, 1800.

THE following Addressees having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors, of the County of Peebles.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Peebles, beg Leave to express our highest Indignation at the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person, and to present our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon your happy Escape from so great Danger.

Attached to your Majesty by every Sentiment that can most endear a Sovereign to his People, who has long been held to be the Father of his People in the just and fullest Sense of the Word, we beg Leave to acknowledge with the highest Gratitude the merciful Interposition of Providence which has been manifested upon this Occasion; and fervently to pray that the Almighty may long continue to protect and continue a Life so truly valuable to all your Majesty's Subjects.

J. Montgomery, Preses.

[Transmitted by Lieutenant-Colonel Montgomery, Representative of the County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the County of Merioneth, offer to your Majesty our humble and hearty Congratulations upon your Majesty's late providential Escape from the Hand of an Assassin. Firmly attached to your sacred Person and to our valuable

Constitution, and fully sensible of the Benefits we enjoy under a just and equitable Administration of the Laws, we heard of the late horrid Attempt with the utmost Horror and Detestation, and do most devoutly pray that the Almighty will long preserve your Majesty's Life, and continue to us and the Rest of your Subjects the inestimable Advantages they now possess under your Majesty's Government, and the unrivalled Constitution of our Country, the Excellence of which, and the eminent Virtues of your Majesty, have secured us from that Anarchy and Confusion that have most unfortunately disunited and distressed the neighbouring States.

Signed by the High Sheriff on Behalf of the Meeting,
Bulkeley Hatchett, Sheriff.
June 6, 1800.

[Transmitted by Sir Watkin Williams Wynne, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Clerk of the Peace, Common-Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidwelly, in the County of Carmarthen, humbly beg Leave, with Professions of the most profound Respect, to approach the Throne with our Address of sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late atrocious Attack on your sacred Life.

The more we consider it in its Nature as a most daring Insult on your Royal Dignity and a malevolent Disposition towards the Constitution of these Realms, which are distinguished above all Nations for the Happiness and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, the more complex, aggravated, and heinous it appears to our Views, consequently we feel ourselves at a Loss for Words to express with sufficient Energy our Abhorrence and Indignation towards the miserable Author and Perpetrator of so diabolical a Crime.

Truly sensible, as well of the great Importance of the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Life to the Welfare of this Empire and the Security of our glorious Constitution, as of the great Benefits which all your Subjects derive under your Majesty's just and mild Government, with anxious Hearts

