

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford in the Kingdom of Ireland, most humbly beg Leave to lay before your Majesty our most heartfelt and sincere Congratulations on your providential Escape from the late horrid and atrocious Attempt upon your Majesty's sacred Person.

We acknowledge with Humility and Gratitude the Interposition of a merciful Providence, which has been so strongly manifested upon this Occasion, and penetrated with a just Sense of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and benign Government, we fervently implore the Supreme Disposer of human Affairs to continue His watchful Care over your Royal Person, and guard it from every Attempt which may be intended against it; and we most ardently pray that it may please the Almighty long to preserve a Life so justly dear to all his Subjects, and that you may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a grateful, a loyal, and a happy People.

Done at a County Meeting held by Henry St. George Cole, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, on Tuesday the Seventeenth of June One thousand eight hundred.

H. S. G. Cole, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monaghan, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, impressed with a due Sense of the Goodness of the Almighty God in having been pleased to protect from the ferocious Attempt of an Assassin, a Life so justly endeared to us as that of your Majesty; and, conscious of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and just Government, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne with our Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape, with Assurances of our Affection, Respect, and Gratitude to your Majesty, and a firm Determination, at all Times and on all Occasions, to defend and support with our Lives and Fortunes a Sovereign so justly endeared to us, whose Throne is seated in the Hearts of your faithful Subjects.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and happy; and that your Majesty may soon accomplish the desirable Event of completely triumphing over all your Enemies, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's loyal Subjects who now address you.

Alexander Montgomery, High Sheriff of the County of Monaghan.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the warmest and most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

It was with the utmost Detestation and Horror that we received the Intelligence of the late atrocious and treasonable Attempt against your Majesty's most sacred Life, and we feel impatient to be among the many Thousands who crowd round your Throne on this Occasion to offer our most cordial and affectionate Congratulations on the Divine Interposition by which the daring Attempt has been frustrated, and your Majesty has been once more preserved from the Hands of Traitors to your faithful People.

During a most eventual Period, and through a Series of Dangers and Difficulties beyond what we of this Land have ever known, we have found in your Majesty's Character and Disposition an assured and effectual Resource against all our Difficulties.

Your paternal Attention has been extended to every Description of your Majesty's Subjects in this Kingdom, allaying those Animosities, and healing those Dissensions which had so long kept us a divided People, and when in an unfortunate Hour a Conspiracy of desperate and daring Men attempted to defeat those your Majesty's most gracious Intentions, and making a common Cause with the ancient and natural Enemies of your Majesty's Throne and Kingdom, avowed their Intentions of separating these Realms, and subverting that glorious Constitution which your Majesty's Family, has, under Providence, been the happy Instrument of preserving to us.

Your Majesty, tempering the Vigour of your Councils with Mercy, and mixing Firmness with Clemency, accomplished our Deliverance, and opened to us a Prospect of more peaceful and prosperous Days than in our most sanguine Hopes we could have promised to ourselves or to our Descendants.

Deeply sensible of these invaluable Blessings, we gratefully implore the Divine Being long to preserve a Life on which not only the Peace and Safety of this Empire, but of so many other of the Nations of Europe at this Moment depend.

Long may your Majesty live to see the happy Effects of your Royal Councils on a free and happy People, and to reign in their Hearts, as you have hitherto done, even to the latest Hour.

Signed by Order of the Meeting.

Charles Drake Dillon, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and congratulatory Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Kilmore.

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Kilmore, at our ordinary Visitation assembled, gladly embrace this public Occasion of testifying our Thankfulness to the Lord God of our Fathers, and our lively Joy for the late providential Deliverance of our most truly religious and gracious King from the Machinations of our Foes, and from the Perils of Assassination.

We are, indeed, duly sensible of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under the mild and lenient Sway of the Father of his People, so ruling in the Fear of God, that we and all his Subjects may lead quiet and peaceable Lives in all Godliness and Honesty.

To your Majesty's pious Zeal and paternal Solitude, and to the Wisdom and Liberality of our
