St. James's, July 16, 1800.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted by His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary, are impelled by the late atrocious Attempt on your Majesty's sacred Life, which, by the Providence of God, has happily proved abortive, to renew our Assurances of unaltered Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Government and illustrious House, but above all to your Majesty's Royal Person, to which we are devoted by every Tie of Duty, Gratitude, and Affection.

Deeply sensible of all the Benefits which we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Administration, we consider the Safety of your Majesty and the Welfare of your People as inseparably connected one with the other; and whilst we look back with mingled Horror and Indignation at the late most wicked and abominable Attempt to deprive us of the valued Pledge of so many Blessings, we offer up to the Almighty Disposer of all Events our humble and earnest Supplications, that it will please Him to continue his Mercies to these Nations, by shielding from all Danger a Life so inestimable in its Value to every loyal Member of the British Empire, and preserving to us long, in unabated Happiness and Prosperity, the common Father of all his Subjects of every Class and Description.

Design, Sir, to receive these, the genuine Effusions of the Heart, from those who justly estimate your Majesty's public and private Virtues, and who are ever ready to defend your Majesty's Life, against all Enemies and Traitors, at the Peril of their own. L. Archer Butler, High Sheriff. Clonmell, July 4, 1800.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of the County of Leitrim, humbly present to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your providential Deliverance from the late most atrocious Attempt on your sacred Person.

Unalterably attached to your Royal Person, and grateful for the Blessings we enjoy under your mild Government, we acknowledge with the warmest Gratitude the Interposition of Divine Providence in your Protection, and offer up our most fervent Prayers that the same Providence may continue its Guard over a Life so invaluable to this Country.

Signed in Name of the County,

Duke Crofton, High Sheriff.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cavan, deeply impressed with a Sense of the gracious Protection extended by Divine Providence over the British Empire, acknowledge with humble and pious Gratitude the signal Mark of His Favor, manifested in the Interposition to save your Majesty's Life from intended Assassination.

Our Experience of the Happiness derived to all the Subjects of your Majesty's Dominions, by the mild and lenient Exercise of your Sway, gives us a deep Interest in whatever may affect the Life and Ease of a Prince who is so truly the Father of his People.

We shall, therefore, never cease to pray that the same Guardian Power which has rescued your Majesty already in so many Instances from imminent Risk, may continue to exert its Influence for the further Protection of your Majesty, and the Happiness and Prosperity of your People.

James Sanderson, High Sheriff.
