THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, beg Leave most humbly to present to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon your Preservation from the late atrocious Attempt against your Majesty's sacred Person.

Truly sensible of the constant paternal Regard of your Majesty to the Happiness of your People, and your uniform Attention to the Interests and Duties of Religion, we cannot but consider your Majesty's Deliverance, from the imminent Danger to which you were then exposed; as a fresh Instance of the merciful Interposition of Divine Providence in Favor of these Kingdoms.

We presume to exult in the Magnanimity displayed by our King in every Hour of Trial, founded, as we are firmly persuaded it is, in religious Trust in the over-ruling Providence of God, and Confidence in the loyal Attachment of his People. And we fervently pray to Almighty God that he will continue to watch over and to protect your Majesty's Life, so justly dear to every Description of your your faithful Subjects, so important to the Welfare of this Country and to the Cause of Religion and Virtue throughout the World.

[Presented by the Bishop of Lincoln.]

St. James's, July 30, 1800.
