Whitehall, September 6, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented unto the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to the Reverend Windham Jones, Curate of the Parish of Watford in the County of Herts, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

S I R,

August 20, 1800.

I take this opportunity to write these few lines as I think they may be of service to you but take me neither for friend nor foe but it is to inform you that if you do not quit this town or alter your proceeding you may depend upon it that there is a conspiracy against you to take away your Life and I am one who has been of the Gang but nothing will I do in it and you may depend upon it that nothing no nothing shall make me devulge the secret as I think it would not be a mis if you was dead but I dont hold with the murder of any Man but to tell you the Truth of my mind I Dont think it will end with your Death because there is two or three more in the town that will suffer the same fate but they are your companions therefore you may acquaint them of the Matter There is but one Gentleman in the Town and that is your Master and he you will spoil soon so no more at present from yours and unknown and will allway remain so.

This Letter was put into the Post-Office at Watford, addressed,

“ For the Rev.^d Mr Win.^m Jones
Watford
Herts.”

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in sending the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually wrote the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
