Sept. 22, 1800.

Whitehall, September 27, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory Hand-Bills have, in the Course of Saturday the 20th and Monday the 22d Instant; been fixed up in different Parts of the Town of Nottingham, tending to encourage the most daring Violations of the public Peace;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in publishing and fixing up the said Hand-Bills, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Author or Authors of the said Hand-Bills,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders by George Coldham, Town Clerk.

Whitehall, September 23, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night of Wednesday the 17th Instant, an inflammatory Paper, intitled "A Caution to the Farmers, Miller, and Baker," was fixed against a Post of the Garrison Gate at Portsmouth;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and fixing up the said Paper, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Mayor and Corporation of the said Town, to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, September 27, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that several inflammatory Papers (one of which begins with Countrymen, and another with Liberty,) have been thrown in the Streets, and stuck up against the Walls in several Parts of the Town of Birmingham, endeavouring to stir up the People to Acts of Rebellion;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing the said Papers, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually wrote, distributed, or posted up either of the said Papers,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Millward, Constable.

Whitehall, September 30, 1800.

Whereas, on the 15th Day of July last, Five Barns and Four Howels, the Property of Mr. Robert Young, situate at Holwells, in the Parish of Bishop's-Hatfield, in the County of Hertford, were maliciously set on Fire by some evil-minded Person or Persons unknown, by which the said Premises, together with a Quantity of Grain and Straw, were entirely consumed; and His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Felony, was pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually set Fire to the said Premises,) who should discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, and Rewards to the Amount of ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY POUNDS were offered to any Person making such Discovery;

And whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that, on the 21st Day of July last, a Letter was sent to the said Robert Young by the Post, of which the following is a Copy:

"London 19th July 1800.

"Farmer Young I am sorry your Corn was destroyed
"ed it was what I was against but the next step
"will not be to destroy the Corn but you may tell
