

outed, inviting a tumultuous and unlawful Assembly to meet on Kennington Common on Sunday the 9th Instant; and it being important to the publick Welfare, that the Author, Printer, and Publisher of the said Hand Bill should be discovered and made amenable to public Justice, as a Warning and Example to others in like Case offending, a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS; (to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury,) will be given to any Person who shall discover the Author, Printer, or Publisher of the said Hand Bill, so that he or they may be convicted of writing, printing, or publishing the same.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that some evil-minded Person or Persons did, on the 23d or 24th Ultimo, place a Piece of burning Wood wrapt up in some old Thatch under a Barn filled with Stubble, the Property of Joseph Goodale Baker, of Withersfield, in the County of Suffolk;

And whereas it has also been humbly represented to the King, that some Person or Persons on the Morning of the 24th Ultimo, did feloniously and maliciously set fire to a Hay Stack, the Property of Thomas Slack, of the Parish of Haverhill, in the said County;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above-mentioned Felonies, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Persons who actually placed the said burning Wood under the Barn, or set fire to the said Hay Stack,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TEN GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Withersfield, in Addition to a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS also offered by the Norwich Insurance Office to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in attempting to set fire to the said Barn, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

As also a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Inhabitants of the Parish of Haverhill, to any Person making Discovery of the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Hay Stack (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Monday the 20th October last, about Nine o'Clock in the Evening, a Barley Rick, of about 160 l. Value, the Property of Mr. Daniel Parker, of the Parish of Dunstable, in the County of Bedford, was discovered to be on Fire, and that there is every Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some evil minded Person or Persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Barley Rick, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually set Fire to the same) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by Daniel Parker.

Whitehall, November 15, 1800.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous threatening Letter has been sent to Lady Glyn, of Claverley, near Bridgenorth, of which the following is a Copy, viz.

We the poor distres'd and half starv'd Tradesmen of W. Hampton Bilston lye Waste and other places do on our knees beg your Ladyship to compel your Tenants to sell Wheat at 10s and Barley at 5 to mix for Bread, We have heard of the humanity your Ladyship is possels'd of, and several other Noblemen, which wee have Petion'd to do the same, at the meeting of 20 distres'd Tradesmen—We are 126 Thousand Men ready to take the Corn and what we can find if provisions are not lower'd and if you do not compell your Tenants to sell as above, except to see your Buildings at all your Farms, in Flames, and the Tenant hung at his Door. We will wait but a short Time longer and if the same, down with old England, your neighbour Perry brings Corn and asks 26s a strike and declares he will not sell under, you will see his Building in Flames and him hanging
