Sir

Wakefield Decr 7h 1800.

These few lines comes unto you, as being a Justice of the Peace to his Majesty King George, to warn you of the Impending danger which is now hanging over your heads' (that is not you alone but all those in this Town who withstands our opposition) For we have now waited a long time in vain, in hopes that the Parliament would have done something for us

But we are now bound in one determination never to rest ourselves till we have brought many to their graves unexpectedly.

We have all clapt our hands In this town and Neighbourhood to a Paper to the amount of Seven hundred with Two hundred and nearly 70 Pieces of Muskets, and 4 Hundred Pikes, Swords &c.

So I conclude that this town will soon be In Ruins. So no more at Present.

Sir,

Wakefield 14 December 1800.

Remember O Remember these fatal times When death itself is almost our Portion but as sure as the Almighty liveth we will revenge. for damn your old Methodist soul we will bring it down you a Constable damn your eyes you the devil if you do stint us to a quartern loaf take care of your life damn King George the third and Billy Pitt may hell be their Portion for ever and ever damn your Red herrins Potatoes and you and all that have any thing to do with it May England fall like dew to the ground and Jacobings ever flourish you shall hear from me again next Week I had not time this is only half.

from Yours &c. &c.

Direct for me at &c. &c.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letters is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the same,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
